Idaho Falls Chukars	4	8	1
Great Falls Voyagers	7	13	0

Champion Chuks: The Chukars, having won the first half title in the Northern Division, continue their three city road today in Great Falls, with today's game officially signaling the start of the second half. Bryar Johnson takes the ball for the Chukars, making his third start of the year and his second against the Voyagers. Johnson allowed two runs over a season high four innings against Great Falls on June 30th. This will also be Johnson;s fourth total appearance at Centene Stadium. Lefty Avery Weems goes for Great Falls, making his first start against Idaho Falls. The former Arizona Wildcat lefty has allowed just four earned runs in three starts since joining the Voyagers.

The Mighty Split: With yesteday's games having no impact on the standings, the Chukars split their twin bill with Great Falls, winning the first game by a 6-5 score and dropping the second game 7-4. In the first game, the Chukars hit a pair of homers, with Ismaldo Rodriguez hitting a two run shot and Stephan Vidal adding one of his own, the first of his career. For Ismaldo, it was his third straight game with a homer. Cody Davenport picked up the win, going 2.2 scoreless innings out of the Chukars bullpen. In game two, the Voyagers sprinted out to a 4-0 lead, thanks to a bases loaded triple from Jonathan Allen in the first inning. The Chukars got it to within a run in the fourth inning, but Lency Delgado drove home two with a double, extending the lead back to three. The Chukars finished the first half 21-16, going 5-4 against Great Falls in the half.

Negret Is Nails: With his home run in the fifth inning on Wednesday night in Missoula, Juan Carlos Negret had hit three home runs in his previous four at bats. He is the only Chukars with a multi home runs game this season. In the final two games of the Missoula series, Negret went 6-10 with three home runs and six RBI.

Oh My Emodi!: Michael Emodi in the last series went 7-13 with a home run, six RBI and three doubles. Emodi drove home the go ahead run in the CHukars' extra inning win on Tuesday, and drove home the first run of the game on Wednesday night. Emodi is tied for fourth in the league in batting average, fourth alone in RBI, and fifth in hits.

Everybody Chih Wang Tonight: Chukars reliever Chih-Ting Wang has taken the Pioneer League by storm, starting his second professional season with 13.1 innings of near perfect relief. The Taiwanese lefty until his last two appearances had allowed just one unearned run on seven hits, and had punched out 18 to just three walks. Wang also has a team leading three wins, all coming in his first three appearances. He was named the Royals pitcher of the month for Idaho Falls in June. Tuesday night he threw five scoreless innings, earning his fourth win of the year.

A Dun-good Performance: On June 23rd, Chukars shortstop Clay Dungan recorded six hits in six at bats, making him the second Chukar in as many seasons to do so, as Kyle Kasser accomplished the feat against Orem. Dungan has multiple hits in 14 games, which leads the team. He is also third in the league in batting average.

The Fabulous First: When the Chukars score in the first inning in 2019, they are a blistering 10-2. They have scored in the first inning three times on the current road trip, winning all three games. In those three games, the Chukars have scored at least three runs in that first frame.

So Long Great Falls: The Chukars don't return to Centene Stadium after Sunday.
