

Greeneville Reds (Rookie)

DERRIN EBERT - Manager

Derrin Ebert is in his ninth season in the organization, his first as a manager. In 2019, he was slated to become Greeneville's pitching coach and assistant to the minor league pitching coordinator, but he was transferred to Rookie Billings after manager Ray Martinez left the Mustangs to tend to personal issues while Billings pitching coach Chris Booker moved to Greeneville. In 2018, Derrin was on the Reds' Major League coaching staff and in the off-season served as pitching coach for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the prestigious Arizona Fall League. He spent the 2012-2013 seasons as pitching coach for the Rookie AZL Reds, the 2014-2015 campaigns as pitching coach for Rookie Billings and the 2016-2017 seasons as pitching coach for Class A Dayton. Selected by Atlanta in the 18th round of the 1994 free-agent draft, Ebert made all 5 of his Major League appearances for the Braves in 1999 at the age of 22. He also pitched in the Royals, Diamondbacks, Cubs, Brewers and Red Sox minor league systems. Derrin retired as a professional player following the 2005 season. He received his associate of arts degree from Estrella Mountain College in 2008 and a bachelor's in secondary education (history) from Arizona State University in December 2009. Derrin lives in Litchfield Park, AZ with wife Lacey and children Kinzy, Cassie, Brody and Cody.

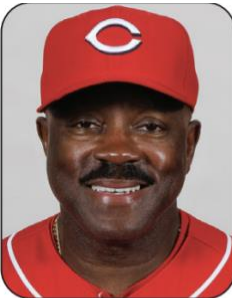

CHRIS BOOKER - Pitching Coach

Chris Booker is in his third season in the organization, his second as pitching coach at Greeneville. In 2019 he was slated to return to Rookie Billings as pitching coach, but he was transferred to Greeneville after Billings manager Ray Martinez left the team to tend to personal issues while Greeneville pitching coach Derrin Ebert moved to Billings. Booker pitched professionally for 13 years, including parts of 3 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Reds, Royals and Nationals. Chris was selected by the Cubs in the 20th round of the 1995 first-year player draft and pitched 7 seasons in their system before being acquired by Cincinnati in 2001. For the Reds, he made his Major League debut on September 5, 2005 vs the Brewers at Great American Ball Park. Booker split time with the Royals and Nationals in 2006 before finishing up his playing career in the Nationals' system in 2008. Chris continues to make his home in Monroeville, Alabama, where he was born and raised.

LUIS TERRERO - Hitting Coach

Luis Terrero returns as hitting coach at Rookie Greeneville after occupying the same role in 2019. He spent the previous 2 years as a hitting coach in the Reds' player development department. Originally signed by the Diamondbacks in 1998 as an amateur free agent, the former Reds farmhand spent 19 seasons in professional baseball. Terrero made his Major League debut in 2003 with Arizona and played parts of 5 seasons for the Diamondbacks (2003-2005), Baltimore Orioles (2006) and Chicago White Sox (2007). The outfielder also played 17 seasons in the Caribbean winter leagues and spent 1 year in Japan's NPB. He lives in Santo Domingo, DR with wife Marisol and children Gabriella, Luis Enrique Jr., Jesus Gabriel and Benjamin.

REGGIE WILLIAMS - Bench Coach

Reggie Williams is in his third year in the organization, his third as bench coach at Rookie Greeneville. He joined the Reds organization in 2018 after working in the Brewers' system from 2009-2016, first as baserunning and outfield coordinator and then as a coach for Class A Brevard County and Rookie Helena. Prior to his time with the Brewers, Reggie spent 13 seasons as the vice president of community relations with the Class AAA Memphis Redbirds (1997-2009). While with the Redbirds, he also worked as a radio/TV broadcaster. From 1991-1997, Reggie was a teacher and a principal in the Memphis City School District. Each off-season, he serves as an adjunct Professor at the University of Memphis. Selected by the Dodgers in the 13th round of the 1982 draft, Williams spent 4 seasons in the Major Leagues with Los Angeles (1985-87) and Cleveland (1988). He was the Dodgers' Rookie of the Year in 1986 and amassed a .259 batting average in 200 Major League games. Reggie continued his playing career in the minor leagues with the Pirates in 1989 and the Rangers in 1990. He received his master's degree in teaching from the University of Memphis in 1994 and 3 years later earned a second master's degree in school supervision and administration. As an undergraduate at Southern University in 1982, he earned the Presidential Scholarship Award for the highest grade point average in the athletic department (3.45).

WADE HEBRINK - Athletic Trainer, MS, ATC

Wade Hebrink is in his fourth season in the organization, his first at Rookie Greeneville. Last season, he was the athletic trainer for the Rookie AZL Reds and spent the previous 2 years working for the Dominican Summer League Reds. The Lake Mills, IA native earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from the University of Northern Iowa in 2014 and master's degree in Exercise Science from Syracuse University in May 2016. While at Syracuse University, he worked primarily with the football and men's lacrosse teams. Hebrink holds certifications in CPR/AED, SASTM, Dry Needling, and Blood Flow Restriction rehabilitation.

JOEL CANACOO - Strength & Conditioning Coach, MS, CSCS, USAW-1

Joel Canacoo is in his first season in the organization. He joined the Reds after 5 years at Cal Lutheran University, his alma mater and where he most recently served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach and also the coordinator of the Forrest Fitness Center and Summer Sports Camps. Joel is an NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and USA Weightlifting (USAW) Level 1 Sports Performance Coach. He has a bachelor's degree in exercise science from California Lutheran University and masters' degrees in sport science and coaching education from East Tennessee State University and in performance science from Setanta College. Born and raised in Ghana, Joel moved to the United States in 2006 at the age of 13. He lived in New York before moving to Thousand Oaks, CA, where he still lives.