Today's Preview: The Clinton LumberKings (A, Mariners) meet the Dayton Dragons (A, Red) for the first and only time this season with the second game of a three-game series. In the two teams' only meeting, at Ashford University Field in Clinton, in 2017 the LumberKings won a three-game series, 2-1. The LumberKings trail the all-time series, dating back to 200, 50 to 53. Since Clinton has been affiliated with the Seattle Mariners (2009) they trail the head-to-head matchups 14 games to 16.

LumberKings Starter: Ryne Inman, 21, makes his fifth start of the season for the LumberKings. He was hit hard in his last outing against the Beloit Snappers at Harry Pohlman Field. Inman lasted just three innings but was given a no decision as the LumberKings rallied from a five-run deficit to beat Beloit 8-5. The issue for Inman was the first inning, allowing all three of his runs in the opening frame on three hits while walking two and striking out two. Over his previous four outings, the Georgia native has bounced between strong starts. He worked 5.2 innings in his season debut, three innings in his second start, and five innings against Wisconsin before being chased after three innings in Beloit. In his two starts at home this season, he has held opponents to just one run over his 8.2 innings of work. Drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the 15th round of the 2015 draft, Inman was stand out starting pitcher at his high school in Parkview Georgia. During his senior season he was a crucial part of his team's high school stat championship, which Inman still refers to as his favorite baseball memory.

Dragons Starter: Packy Naughton, 22, makes his sixth start of the season for the Dayton Dragons. The Boston native, is coming off a six-inning outing against the Fort Wayne TinCaps in which he earned the win. He allowed three runs on eight hits while walking one and striking out eight during his time out. The left-hander was selected by the Cincinnati Reds in the ninth round of the 2017 draft out of Virginia Tech and signed for $137,500. Was a high school standout, twice tossing one-hitters and striking out at least 17 batters in each of those starts. He made his professional debut for the Billings Mustangs on June 28 against the Missoula Osprey. Was the Opening Day starter for the Dragons on April 5th in Bowling Green.

Last Time Out: A late charge by the Clinton LumberKings came up one run short in an 8-7 loss to the Dayton Dragons on Friday night at Ashford University Field. A six-run rally by the LumberKings (14-10) in the seventh inning was not enough in the team's fourth straight loss. The scoring started in the top of the third inning against Clinton starter Oliver Jaskie. Jose Garcia lead off the inning by being hit by the pitch and scored when the Dragons (14-11) strung together three straight hits. Michael Beltre capped the rally with a two-run triple to right center field. In the top of the fourth, the Dragons pulled away with a four-run inning off Jaskie (1-1). Two home runs by Dayton scored all of their runs in the inning. Hendrik Clementina crushed the first long fly of the inning to right center field, part of a two home run night at the plate. Three batters later, and with a runner at first, Narciso Crook lined a ball to right-center that hit off the wall and caromed away from LumberKings center fielder Jack Larsen who crashed hard into the wall. Crook dashed around the bases to score an inside-the-park home run. Larsen would then be removed from the game in the following inning. Nick Thurman drove in his first run of the season for the LumberKings with an RBI single to right in the bottom of the eighth to pull Clinton back to within one. In the bottom of the ninth, John Ghyzel earned the save for Dayton with a perfect inning of relief.

Strikeouts Pile Up: Four Clinton LumberKings pitchers combined to set a new season high for strikeouts during Friday night's loss. 18 strike outs by the LumberKings was one of the few positives to take away from their fourth straight loss. Kyle Wilcox made his 2018 LumberKings season debut and struck out all six of the batters he set down, including striking out five straight, the most consecutive batters struck out by a LumberKings pitcher.

At Last: Ariel Sandoval collected the bug hit in the six-run bottom of the seventh inning. With two out in the inning, he launched a three-run home run to left that pulled Clinton to within one. Sandoval began the season with five home runs through the first week to lead the league. The three-run clout ended a drought of 17 games without a home run. He is currently for third in the league in home runs.

Lefty Punisher: One matchup to watch in tonight's game will be LumberKings first basemen Ryan Costello against Dragons starter Packy Naughton. Costello has feasted off of left-handed pitching this season and is batting .556 (5/9) off lefties with a home run and three RBI. The average, against Southpaws, is the highest on the LumberKings.

Roster Move: Another negative moment in the lopsided in the loss on Thursday night was an injury to LumberKings reliever David Gerber. The righty worked 1.1 innings out of the bullpen before grabbing his right throwing shoulder and having to be removed from the game. As expected, the injury has led to the LumberKings second roster move of the season. Gerber will be placed in the disabled list while former LumberKing Kyle Wilcox will be assigned to Clinton for his third time.

Slide Continues: The loss on Friday night was the LumberKings fourth straight, their longest streak of the season, and again followed the theme of big innings. Although Oliver Jaskie was able to keep the Dragons scoreless in the first inning he allowed three runs in the third and four in the fourth. The LumberKings have allowed 12 scoring innings during the current slide with eight of them going for two runs or more.

This date in baseball history: On this date in 1955, in his first major league start, Dodger rookie starter Tommy Lasorda ties a record, throwing three wild pitches in the first inning of the team's 4-3 victory over St. Louis at Ebbets Field. The future Dodgers' Hall of Fame skipper, during his one inning of work, will be spiked by Wally Moon, covering a play at home plate after uncorking on of his errant pitches.

Broadcast Information: Erik Oas returns for his second season as the "voice" of LumberKings baseball. All games will be broadcast live on 100.3 FM WCCI and online at LumberKings.com via the TuneIn Radio App.

Today's Starting Pitcher

#10 Ryne Inman

HT: 6-5 WT: 215 Bats: Right Throws: Right

Age: 23

Born: May 13, 1996

Resides: Lawrenceville, Georgia

Acquired: Selected in 15th round of June 2015 First-Year Player Draft

LAST TIME OUT: Inman turned in his second three inning start of the season. In his second career start against the Beloit Snappers, he gave up all of his runs in the first inning but received some bad luck. The inning appeared to end when a ball took an odd hop at Harry Pohlman Field away from second basemen Louis Boyd, allowing two more runs to score in the inning. The LumberKings rallied back for an 8-5 win.

AGAINST THE DRAGONS: This will be Inman's first career start against the Dayton Dragons.

2017: Made his professional debut in only appearance with the AZL Mariners on Sept. 1 vs. the AZL Angels (1.0,0,0,0,0,2).
