2018 Knights Knotes

2018 KNIGHT LIGHTS: The Knights finished the 2018 season with a 64-75 record and a fourth-place finish in the International League South Division. Their 64-win total was an improvement over their 61-win total in 2017. It was their second consecutive fourth-place finish (2017) and third since 2014.

FROM THE SOUTH TO THE SOUTH SIDE: A total of 182 roster moves were made over the course of the 2018 season. For the year, a total of 25 players were promoted to the Chicago White Sox. Those 25 players, along with the date(s) of their promotion, are as follows: RHP Bruce Rondón (April 8), RHP Chris Volstad (April 12), RHP Gregory Infante (April 21), RHP Chris Beck (April 23), OF Daniel Palka (April 24), RHP Juan Minaya (April 28, June 5, and June 13), RHP Dylan Covey (April 28 & May 19), LHP Jace Fry (May 4), INF José Rondón (May 5, May 19, & August 22), OF Charlie Tilson (May 24), C Alfredo González (May 24), INF Matt Skole (May 28), C Kevan Smith (June 5), LHP Xavier Cedeño (June 7), RHP Thyago Vieira (June 22 & July 27), RHP Jeanmar Gómez (July 11), RHP Tyler Danish (July 27), C Dustin Garneau (August 3), OF Ryan LaMarre (August 6 & August 21), RHP Michael Kopech (August 21), RHP Ryan Burr (August 22), RHP Ian Hamilton (August 31), LHP Aaron Bummer (September 1), LHP Caleb Frare (September 1), and OF Ryan Cordell (September 3). In 2017, 22 players earned a promotion from Charlotte to Chicago.

THE JOY OF ELOY: OF Eloy Jiménez, who spent the 2018 season ranked as the top prospect in the Chicago White Sox system by Baseball America and MLB.com, had a year to remember. He compiled a .355 batting average (75-for-211) with 28 runs scored, 13 doubles, one triple, 12 home runs, and 33 RBIs over 55 games with the Knights. He was named as the Chicago White Sox Minor League Player of the Month in July. The talented Jiménez hit .435 (27-for-62) with 13 runs scored, six home runs, and 13 RBIs over 16 games in July. A native of Santo Domingo, DR, Jiménez compiled a .317 (65-for-205) batting average with 36 runs scored, 15 doubles, two triples, 10 home runs, and 42 RBIs over 53 games with the Barons in 2018. At the time of his promotion to Charlotte on June 21st, he ranked second in the Southern League in batting average, tied for fifth in home runs, tied for second in RBIs, and first in slugging percentage (.556). He represented the Barons at the 2018 Southern League All-Star Game. Overall in 2018, he hit .337 (140-for-416) with 64 runs scored, 28 doubles, three triples, 22 home runs, and 75 RBIs in 108 games combined (Birmingham and Charlotte).

K IS FOR KOPECH: RHP Michael Kopech -- the top pitching prospect in the Chicago White Sox system in 2018—hit the 100-strikeout plateau on Saturday, June 30th. The talented 22-year-old, who earned his first-ever promotion to the majors on August 21st, finished with a team-best 170 strikeouts on the season. His 170 tally led all of the International in strikeouts and was the highest total among a Charlotte Knights pitcher in single-season history. He passed RHP Shawn Boskie on the team's single-season strikeouts list. Boskie notched 164 in 1989. Kopech was the White Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Month for April

ROACH REPORT: RHP Donny Roach (9-2, 2.65) went 5-0 with a 0.98 ERA in the month of June and was named as the International League's Player of the Month and the Chicago White Sox Pitcher of the Month for June. Overall in 2018 with the Knights, he went 9-2 with a 2.65 ERA in 16 games (15 starts). Roach asked for and was granted his release by the White Sox on July 5th to pursue an opportunity to pitch in Japan. He re-signed with the White Sox in the 2018 offseason.

LEADERBOARD: INF José Rondón led the Charlotte Knights with four triples and 18 home runs in 2018... INF Eddy Alvarez was the team leader in runs scored with 52... INF Patrick Leonard was the team leader in hits (104) and doubles (29)... OF Jacob May led the team with 15 stolen bases. May is third all-time in Knights franchise history in steals with 65... RHP lan Hamilton led the club with 10 saves... RHP Gregory Infante added nine saves, which put him on the team's all-time saves list with 17 (tied for ninth overall).

200th CAREER MANAGERIAL WIN: Mark Grudzielanek, a 15-year major league veteran and career .289 big league hitter, notched his 200th career victory as a manager on Thursday, August 16. In two seasons at the helm of the Knights (2017-18), Grudzielanek has compiled a 125-156 record. He made his managerial debut in 2015 with Kane County – guiding the club to an 84-54 mark.

ATTENDANCE LEADERS: Drawing 8,980 fans per game over 69 home dates in 2018, the Charlotte Knights led all of Minor League Baseball in average attendance per game for the fourth time in five seasons at BB&T Ballpark. The Knights once again packed the ballpark consistently in 2018, hosting 23 sell-out crowds over the course of the regular season. In all, the Knights welcomed a Minor League Baseball-best 619,639 fans through the gates in 2018 at BB&T Ballpark.

BB&T BALLPARK'S ALL-TIME ATTENDANCE: Since opening BB&T Ballpark on April 11, 2014, a total of 3,233,451 fans have attended 350 Knights' home games. The most-visited venue in all of Minor League Baseball since 2014 has welcomed 133 sell-out crowds over the course of that span. The team has averaged 9,238 fans per game over five seasons.

2019 PROMOTIONS

Ten notable celebrities, an Uptown ballpark-record 19 thrilling fireworks shows, four collectible bobblehead giveaways, and Homer The Dragon's 30th Birthday Celebration headline the Charlotte Knights' 2019 promotional schedule. Single-game tickets for the upcoming season at BB&T Ballpark in Uptown Charlotte will go on sale to the general public in person at the BB&T Ballpark Ticket Office beginning at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 9th. Two hours later (12:00 p.m. noon), single-game tickets will go on sale online at CharlotteKnights.com and by phone (704-274-8282).

The Knights will embark on their sixth season at BB&T Ballpark with their 2019 home opener slated for 7:04 p.m. on Thursday, April 4th against the Durham Bulls (Tampa Bay Rays). Opening Weekend is highlighted by a 2019 Magnet Schedule giveaway presented by Sonny's BBQ (Thursday, April 4th to Saturday, April 6th), the first Friday Night Fireworks show of the season presented by BB&T and News Talk 1110 WBT (Friday, April 5th), and Homer The Dragon's 30th Birthday Celebration, which features a Homer The Dragon Bobblehead giveaway to the first 2,000 fans presented by Sunbelt Rentals (Sunday, April 7th).

Bobblehead collectors will also want to visit the ballpark on three other occasions this season. On Tuesday, May 14th, the first 2,000 fans will receive a Good Knight Charlie Bobblehead as part of the club's 6th Annual Star Wars Knight. On June 9th, the first 2,000 fans will receive an Eloy Jiménez Bobblehead in a Charlotte Caballeros uniform as part of the team's first of three games in the Copa de la Diversión series. The fourth bobblehead giveaway will take place on Jimmy Buffett Night (Saturday, July 27th) with a Matt Parrott "Parrott Head" Bobblehead. Parrott, the team's head groundskeeper, has been awarded the Triple-A Sports Turf Manager of the Year in each of the past two seasons (2017-18).

The opening month of the 2019 campaign will feature two of the team's nine celebrity appearances. Over the course of the year, the 2019 Celeb Series will welcome notable actors from television and film, as well as iconic baseball players to meet fans and sign autographs. The entire series kicks off with an appearance by National Baseball Hall-of-Famer Andre Dawson on Wednesday, April 24th. Just six days later, the Knights will welcome 10-time Gold Glove Award winner Andruw Jones to BB&T Ballpark on Tuesday, April 30th.

As the season heats up, the 2019 Celeb Series blossoms in June as the Knights welcome four celebrities to BB&T Ballpark. WWE Hall-of-Famer and NWA Legend Ricky "The Dragon" Steamboat makes an epic return to Charlotte to meet fans and sign autographs on Wednesday, June 5th. One night later, Alison Becker, who played Shauna Malwae-Tweep on "Parks and Recreation", will meet and greet fans on Thursday, June 6th. On Saturday, June 8th, the Knights will welcome Dwier Brown, who played John Kinsella in "Field of Dreams", for a special meet and greet. Brown's appearance, which will also feature a pre-game catch on the field, will be followed up by a visit from 1986 World Series hero Mookie Wilson on Wednesday, June 19th.

The month of July will be a "blast" with post-game fireworks on six occasions, including the 43rd Annual WBT SkyShow on Thursday, July 4th. The final two full months of the regular season will showcase four of the team's ten celebrity appearances -- Corbin Bernsen (Roger Dorn from "Major League") on Saturday, July 13th, and Tom Guiry (Smalls from "The Sandlot") on Thursday, July 25th. The memorable series will conclude with John O'Hurley (J. Peterman) on Thursday, August 1st as part of a "Seinfeld" Tribute Night.

Additional appearances will occur at the ballpark on Negro League Night (Tuesday, April 9th), Princess Day (Sunday, May 19th), and the first-ever Marvel Super Hero ™ Day (Sunday, July 14th) at BB&T Ballpark. Fans can also expect additional dates and guests to be announced, including the 3rd Annual Women in Baseball Night (Sunday, August 18th) as Marla Hooch returns to BB&T Ballpark for a second consecutive season, and a special 50th Anniversary Tribute to the 1969 Charlotte Hornets Championship Team (Saturday, June 22nd, 7:04 p.m.) with Charlotte Hornets throwback jerseys worn on-field and auctioned off to benefit Charlotte Knights Charities.

Staple promotions, including Friday Night Fireworks presented by BB&T and News Talk 1110 WBT, $1 Hot Dogs presented by Sahlen's, Bark in the Ballpark presented by Williams Subaru, and Sunbelt Sundays presented by Sunbelt Rentals with post-game Kids Run the Bases presented by Killingsworth Environmental, will also return in 2019. In addition, six select Saturday games will feature post-game fireworks (June 8th, June 22nd, July 13th, July 27th, August 17th, and August 24th) and all 12 Thursday home games will once again offer $3 domestic drafts, $5 craft drafts, and $1 small sodas for Thirsty Thursday ™.

Lastly, the Knights will take part in the MiLB "Copa de la Diversión" for the third straight season. The "Fun Cup" is a season-long event sereis designed to embrace the culture and values that resonate most with local U.S. HIspanic and Latin communities. The Knights will play as the Caballeros de Charlotte for three dates (June 9th, July 23rd, August 17th), with a rebranded Caballeros logo.

- Spent the entire season with the Kansas City Royals, his seventh and final year with the club.
- Franchise-record consecutive starts streak (421) was snapped on 7/8 (started on 9/26/15) and was the longest streak in the Majors since Miguel Tejada started in 558 straight games from 2004-07 ... the first 407 starts were at shortstop, the longest streak since Cal Ripken Jr. started in 2,216 straight at the position from 1982-96.
- Hit .195 (70-359) with 21 RBI in 104 games through 8/1 ... in his last 36 games, hit .333/.370/.452 (42-126) with 13 RBI, including a season-high eight-game hit streak to end the year ... finished the season in the top 10 among all-time Royals in: sacrifices (79, 3rd), stolen bases (160, 8th), games (1,245, tied for 8th), hits (1,208, 9th), doubles (207, 10th) and triples (43, 10th).

2017 SEASON

- Played all 162 games for Kansas City ... one of five players to play in 162 games in 2017, along with Joey Votto, Rougned Odor, Freddy Galvis and Eric Hosmer ... he and Votto were the only players to start every game ... also the only player to start 162 games at shortstop since Jimmy Rollins during his 2007 NL MVP season.
- Set a franchise record with 36 doubles as a shortstop, one more than Kurt Stillwell's 35 in 1990.
- Prior to the season, played for Venezuela in the World Baseball Classic, hitting .375 (9-24) with four RBI and seven stolen bases over seven games.

2016 SEASON

- Made 162 starts for the Royals for the season time in his career...one of two players (Jonathan Schoop) to do it in 2016.
- Had two separate 14-game hitting streaks ... the first was from 6/18-7/3, in which he hit .371 (23-62) and the second was from 8/23-9/6, in which he hit .357 (20-56)

2015 SEASON

- Earned his first Rawlings Gold Glove, becoming the first Royals shortstop to receive the honor ... also named an All-Star for the first time and was the starting shortstop for the AL in Cincinnati ... led off the game with a single vs. Clayton Kershaw.
- Started all 16 postseason games at shortstop, batting .329 (23-for-70) with four doubles, three triples, a homer and 13 runs scored.
- Named MVP of the ALCS vs. Toronto, batting .478 (11-23) with two doubles, a triple and six runs scored ... led off each of the first four games of the series with a hit, setting a postseason record ... led off Game 1 of the World Series against the Mets with the 12th inside-the-park home run in World Series history, and first since 10/12/1929 ... it was first inside-the-park homer to start a World Series game since 1903 ... Royals went on to win the World Series over the Mets in five games.

PREVIOUS SEASONS

- 2014: Became first Royal ever to make 162 starts in a season ... played in all 15 postseason games, hitting .292 as the Royals lost the World Series to the Giants.
- 2012: Was the first Royal to post a 30-double, 30-steal season since Carlos Beltran (44 doubles, 35 steals) in 2002... ranked fifth in the AL with 35 stolen bases.

HISTORY

Professional baseball was still in its early stages when the International League was founded in 1884 and despite numerous name changes, the IL has gone on to achieve the longest continual history of any minor league. "International League" was first used during the circuit's third year of operation. Although other titles were tried in later seasons, the league returned again and again to "International League," which has remained the official title since 1920. The Charlotte Knights have been a member of the International League since 1993. The franchise has won two Governors' Championships (1993, 1999). PRESIDENT/TREASURER: Randy A. CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL-OF-FAMERS

Early Wynn

Early Wynn won exactly 300 games over his 23-year Major League career. An eight-time All-Star and winner of the 1959 American League Cy Young Award, Wynn finished his career with a 300-244 record and a 3.54 ERA. While he spent 10 years with Cleveland, eight with Washington, and five with Chicago (AL), the 6'0, 190-pound right-hander spent three seasons in Charlotte with the Hornets. During his time with Charlotte's Minor League team, Wynn won 34 games (34-32) and finished with an ERA of 4.45 in 94 games. The Alabama native compiled a 15-14 record with a 3.96 ERA in 34 games for the 1939 Charlotte Hornets.

Harmon Killebrew – one of baseball's most prolific sluggers – spent 22 seasons in the Majors and hit an astounding 573 career home runs. Before his success in the Majors, Killebrew played in Charlotte with the Hornets. In 1956, he appeared in 70 games for the Hornets and hit .325 with 15 homers. The rest was history for the 11-time American League All-Star & American League MVP in 1969. When he finished his career after the 1975 season, he ranked fifth all-time on the home run list. Nicknamed "Killer", the Idaho native was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1984.

Eddie Murray

Eddie Murray excelled at the plate for the 1976 Charlotte O's, hitting .298 with 12 home runs and 46 RBIs over 88 games. He earned a promotion to Triple-A Rochester later that year and continued to hit. He batted .274 with 11 home runs and 40 RBIs. "Steady Eddie" began his Hall of Fame career a year later with the Baltimore Orioles – making his Major League debut on April 7, 1977 at the age of 21. He hit .283 with 27 home runs and 88 RBIs in his first season and won the American League's Rookie of the Year.A native of Los Angeles, CA, Murray went on to play 21 seasons in the Majors – 13 of those with Baltimore. He was a 1983 World Series winner, with Baltimore, an eight-time All-Star, three-time Gold Glove Award winner, and a three-time Silver Slugger Award winner. Murray finished his career with a .287 batting average, 3,255 hits, 504 home runs, and 1,917 RBIs. He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003.

Harmon Killebrew

Cal Ripken Jr. was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the 2nd round of the 1978 draft and made his professional debut later that year in Bluefield (Single-A). A season later, the 18-year-old Maryland native made his leap through Baltimore's Minor League system. He hit .303 in Miami (Single-A) over 105 games and later made the jump to Double-A Charlotte where he would become an important player for a very talented team. After appearing in just 17 games for the Charlotte O's in 1979, Ripken was back in 1980 and this time he set career highs in the offensive department. In 144 games for Charlotte, Ripken hit .276 with 25 home runs, 78 RBIs and 144 hits. Ripken's solid play, along with Drungo Hazewood, who hit a team-high 28 home runs, led the O's to a Southern League Championship in 1980. Ripken spent one more season in the Minors with Triple-A Rochester in 1981 before making his Major League debut on August 10, 1981 as a 20-year-old. That was the start of a special career, which saw Ripken play in a Major League record 2,632 consecutive games. Ripken finished his career with 3,184 hits, 431 home runs, and 1,695 RBIs. Among some of his accomplishments, he won the 1982 American League Rookie of the Year, a 1983 World Series Champion with the Orioles, an eight-time Silver Slugger Award winner, a 19-time American League All-Star, and a two-time Gold Glove Award winner. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997 – his first year on the ballot.

Cal Ripken Jr.

CHARLOTTE HALL OF FAMERS

Class of 2018 National Baseball Hall of Fame Inductee JIM THOME Charlette Variebte 1002

Charlotte Knights 1993

Jim Thome, who shined with the Charlotte Knights in 1993, was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame on Wednesday, January 24, 2018. Thome becomes the first player in Charlotte Knights franchise history to earn entrance into the Hall.

Thome made his mark on the Charlotte area in 1993 -- his one and only season with the Charlotte Knights. At the age of 22, he hit .332 and clubbed 25 home runs while driving in 102 RBIs in 1993 with the Knights.

He earned the International League's Most Valuable Player Award and a trip to the majors with the Cleveland Indians later that year. Thome helped lead the Knights and manager Charlie Manuel to the 1993 Governors' Cup Championship in their first season as a Triple-A franchise.

For his career, Thome mashed 612 career home runs at the major league level over 22 seasons -- four of those with Manuel at the helm.

A five-time All-Star, he led the National League in home runs in 2003 with an impressive 47 while playing for the Philadelphia Phillies, one of six teams he played for in his major league career (Indians, Phillies, White Sox, Dodgers, Twins and Orioles). He finished his illustrious big league career with 2,328 career hits and 1,699 RBIs.

Since 2013, he has worked with the Chicago White Sox as a special assistant to senior vice president/general manager, Rick Hahn, working with minor league players in the organization -- including the Charlotte Knights.

On April 11, 2014, Thome helped usher in a new era of professional baseball in Charlotte as he threw out a ceremonial first pitch at the opening of BB&T Ballpark in Uptown Charlotte.

Two seasons later, Thome and Manuel were inducted into the Charlotte Baseball Round Table of Honor at the 2016 Triple-A Baseball All-Star Game Luncheon on the morning of July 13th at the Charlotte Convention Center. The iconic duo each threw out a ceremonial first pitch later that evening at the 2016 Sonic Automotive Triple-A Baseball All-Star Game.

Note: Frank Thomas, who was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2014, made a brief major league rehab appearance with the Knights in 2005, but did not play for the Knights on his way to the majors.

CHARLOTTE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME CLASSES (1982-87)

1982: Harmon Killebrew, Hoyt Wilhelm, Tony Oliva, Phil Howser, Minnie Mendoza, Frank Packard, Roberto Estalella, 1965 Post 9 Team

1984: Sammy Stewart, Calvin Griffith, Garland Shiflett, Bob Porterfield, Carl Bolick

Hoyt Wilhelm - RHP

Though he never donned a Hornets uniform, Hall of Famer Hoyt Wilhelm became a member of the Charlotte Baseball Hall of Fame's inaugural class. Born in Huntersville, North Carolina, the player known as "Old Sarge" appeared in over 1,000 games across his 21-year major league career. His first professional appearances came as a 19-year-old with the Mooresville Moors in 1942. He was inducted the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1985 having won 124 games as a reliever and 143 contests overall during his illustrious career.

Tony Oliva - OF

Born in Pinar del Rio, Cuba, outfielder Tony Oliva hit .350 in his lone season with the Charlotte Hornets en route to a trio of major league batting titles as a member of the Minnesota Twins. The eight time All-Star will be making an appearance at BB&T Ballpark on Tuesday, May 16.

Minnie Mendoza - INF

Infielder Minnie Mendoza spent a total of 10 seasons playing baseball in Charlotte, appearing for the Hornets during both the Class A and Class AA eras. The Cuban infielder was a career .288 hitter at the AA level, and appeared in 16 games for the Minnesota Twins.

Roberto Estalella - OF

Roberto Estalella appeared for the Charlotte Hornets at both ends of his professional journey; playing during the 1937 and 1938 seasons, and closing his career with the 1951 Hornets. In between, the Cuban Estalella appeared in nearly 700 major league games across nine seasons. He was named an All-Star during the 1945 season.

1965 Post 9 Team

The lone group enshrined to the Charlotte Baseball Hall of Fame, the 1965 Post 9 Team made their way into the history books by capturing an American Legion National Championship in 1965. Notables such as Dave Lemonds highlighted the amateur team, eventually making their way from the Queen City to the major leagues.

Jim Crockett Jr.

Jim Crockett Jr. ushered in the modern era of baseball in Charlotte, purchasing the Asheville Orioles after the 1975 season and moving the team southeast. Griffith Park was renamed to Crockett Park and housed the team until 1985.

Calvin Griffith

Calvin Griffith managed the 1938 Hornets to a Piedmont League title, and further made his mark on baseball by moving the Washington Senators to Minnesota before the 1961 season. Griffith Park, which was built in 1940, was named after him.

Grady Little

A product of Garinger High School in Charlotte, Grady Little was drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the 15th round of the 1968 MLB Draft. Following a six-year playing career, Little began his career as a manager. He managed the Hornets in 1983-84, eventually making his way to the major leagues prior to the 2000 season.

CHARLOTTE BASEBALL ROUND TABLE OF HONOR

The 2016 season marked the return of the Charlotte Baseball Round Table of Honor, also known as the Charlotte Baseball Hall of Fame. From 1982-87, five Hall of Fame classes featuring 29 players and the entire 1965 Post 9 Team emerged from nearly a century of baseball in the Queen City toward a permanent spot at the Round Table of Honor.

JIM THOME 1993 CHARLOTTE KNIGHTS

A prolific slugger who made his mark on the Charlotte area in 1993 -- his one and only season with the Charlotte Knights. That year the mammoth home run hitter put together an MVP season. The Illinois native hit .332 and clubbed 25 home runs while driving in 102 RBIs on his way to earning the International League's Most Valuable Player Award and a trip to the majors with the Cleveland Indians.

His solid season helped lead the Knights and manager Charlie Manuel to the 1993 Governors' Cup Championship in their first season as a Triple-A franchise. He went on to slug 612 career home runs at the major league level in 22 seasons -- four of those with Manuel at the helm. A five-time All-Star, he led the National League in home runs in 2003 with an impressive 47 while playing for the Philadelphia Phillies, one of six teams he played for in his major league career (Indians, Phillies, White Sox, Dodgers, Twins and Orioles). He finished his illustrious big league career with 2,328 career hits and 1,699 RBIs.

CHARLIE MANUEL 1968 CHARLOTTE HORNETS, 1993 CHARLOTTE KNIGHTS

With a larger-than-life persona as a player, scout, coach, manager, and executive, Charlie Manuel has devoted a lifetime to the game of baseball. Early on -- as a 24-year-old -- the hard-hitting outfielder brought his talents to Charlotte where he slugged 13 home runs and drove in 79 runs for the Charlotte Hornets in 1968. He finished third in the Southern League that season in RBIs and batted a respectable .283. A year later, the Northfork, WV native made his major league debut with the Minnesota Twins. Overall, this legendary baseball mind spent parts of six seasons in the majors before taking his home run hitting talents to Japan where he mashed 189 long balls over six seasons. Years later, Manuel returned to the Queen City area as a manager and led the Charlotte Knights to their first Governors' Cup title in 1993 after 86 regular-season wins and a dominating playoff run. He later took his managerial talents to the majors and went on to win 1,055 games as a major league manager over 12 seasons. In 2008, his hard-work came full circle as he guided his Philladelphia Phillies to a World Series win -- the organization's first since 1980.

FRANCES CROCKETT 1976–1987 CHARLOTTE O's

The first female General Manager in professional baseball, Frances Crockett guided her Charlotte O's to success on the field and at the gates. Following the departure of the Charlotte Hornets in 1972, professional baseball in Charlotte, NC was dormant for three years until the Crockett family brought America's Pastime back to the city. From 1976 to 1987, the Charlotte O's were the Double-A affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles and played their home games at Crockett Park. Led by the hard work of Frances, the O's were a family business and their family friendly environment was a great place to watch baseball each year.

On the field, her O's brought home two Southern League Championships (1980 & 1984). In 1980, she was honored by The Sporting News with the Class AA Executive of the Year Award -- becoming the first woman to win The Sporting News Award at any level. In 1982, she was profiled in Sports Illustrated for her leadership and tireless efforts to Charlotte baseball. As the team's leader, the two-time Rawlings Woman Executive of the Year (1980 & 1985) guided many future Major League Baseball stars – including National Baseball Hall of Famers Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken Jr., as well as countless others. She remains a valuable member of the Charlotte community and a great ambassador to Charlotte professional baseball.

DON BEAVER, OWNER CHARLOTTE KNIGHTS 1998–Present

With a passion for the game of baseball that began early in life, Don Beaver has devoted countless hours to America's Favorite Pastime. As an owner of Minor League Baseball teams since 1992, Don's commitment to the game is unparalleled.

As a young player, he excelled in youth leagues including American Legion and Little League Baseball. In 1952, As a 12-year-old, Don shined as he pitched and won for his team -- the Mooresville All-Stars -- into the Little League World Series.

As the years went on, Don's leadership in the sport led him to a minority interest in the Pittsburgh Pirates as well as a majority ownership in Minor League teams across the country -- including in his hometown of Hickory, NC. His vision to move the Knights from Fort Mill, SC to Uptown Charlotte after years of hurdles came to fruition when the team broke ground for BB&T Ballpark on September 14, 2012.

That vision helped propel the Knights to record-setting attendance while being a major catalyst for business development in the Queen City. He is a member of the Little League Baseball Hall of Excellence, the South Atlantic League Hall of Fame, as well as a respected businessman and community leader.

DRUNGO LaRUE HAZEWOOD 1979–1982 CHARLOTTE O's

A larger-than-life figure, he was a man whose smile and baseball ability left a lasting impression on all who knew him. An athletically gifted two-sport star in high school, he was selected by the Baltimore Orioles in the first round (19th overall) of the 1977 draft out of Sacramento High School in Sacramento, CA. From there, his physical gifts, which included lightning speed on the base paths, a cannon for an arm in the outfield, and a power bat at the plate, led him to set records during his time in the Queen City.

He excelled on the baseball diamond for four seasons with the Charlotte O's from 1979 to 1982. In 1980, the prolific slugger launched 28 home runs, added 80 runs batted in, and stole 29 bases.

A true five-tool player, he was one of the all-time legendary players in Charlotte O's franchise history. The 6'3" right-handed hitter finished his career as the club's all-time leader in games played, at-bats, runs scored, and walks, while he finished second all-time in in hits, home runs, runs batted in, and stolen bases.

An important field general, he helped the Charlotte O's capture a Southern League Championship in 1980 – the club's first in franchise history. More importantly, he was loyal teammate, fan favorite, and a family man.

BRIAN DAUBACH 1997–1998 CHARLOTTE KNIGHTS

Originally selected by the New York Mets in the 17th round of the 1990 MLB June Amateur Draft, Brian Daubach spent parts of eight seasons in the majors and 14 in the minors over the course of his illustrious career. He hit a total of 93 home runs at the major league level, including 20-plus home runs in four consecutive seasons with the Boston Red Sox from 1999 to 2002. He also swatted a remarkable 160 home runs and 805 RBIs in the minors.

Daubach appeared in two seasons with the Knights (1997-1998) when the team was the Triple-A affiliate of the Florida Marlins. Over that two-year span, he combined to record 85 doubles, 56 home runs, and 217 RBIs with the franchise. In 1997, he compiled a .278 batting average with 40 doubles, 21 home runs, and 93 RBIs in 136 games. One year later, Daubach returned to the Knights and hit .316 with 157 hits, 102 runs scored, 45 doubles, four triples, 35 home runs, and 124 RBIs. He led the International League in home runs and RBIs that season before making his major league debut with the Marlins on September 10, 1998 as loyal teammate, fan favorite, and a family man.

CHARLOTTE O's HISTORY

From 1976 to 1987, the Charlotte O's epitomized Charlotte. The players, the coaches, the front office staff, and of course, the Crockett Family were synonymous with baseball in the Queen City. If you were a baseball fan in the Charlotte area from the mid-to-late 1970's to the mid-to-late 1980's, you attended games at Crockett Park on Magnolia Avenue in Charlotte. You witnessed history in 1980 and 1984 when the Knights brought home a Southern League Championship. For 12 memorable seasons, it was the place to be all summer long. With baseball now back in Charlotte – where it be-

The Charlotte O's were the Double-A, Southern League affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles. During the course of their 12-year affiliation, the O's featured many bright stars including National Baseball Hall-of-Famers Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken Jr. The franchise also boasted talented players that longs – many fans will once again be able to enjoy a game.

Murray and Cal Ripken Jr. The franchise also boasted talented players that would become Charlotte icons. Players such as Drungo LaRue Hazewood, John "T-Bone" Shelby, "Cat" Whitfield, and others, were household names in and around the Charlotte area. Managers Grady Little, John Hart, Jimmy Williams, and Mark Wiley were also legendary figures in the Queen City.

Just before the O's came into existence, the city of Charlotte was without baseball for three consecutive seasons. After the Charlotte Hornets (baseball) left the Queen City at the conclusion of the 1972 season, Charlotte was without professional baseball from 1973-1975. Enter the Crockett family.

Jim Crockett Jr. – son of legendary wrestling promoter Jim Crockett Sr. – along with his family purchased the Asheville O's in 1975 and moved the club to Clark Griffith Park in Charlotte. Griffith Park was the same ballpark that housed the Charlotte Hornets from 1940 to 1972 and it was once home to Harmon Killebrew, Early Wynn, Tony Oliva, and many other Hornets greats. The historic wooden ballpark was renamed Jim Crockett, Sr., Memorial Park and it was the place where new memories were made.

The team's success was felt at the gates and on-the-field – but not at first. Although the inaugural O's team (1976) compiled a 76-64 record and featured future legend Eddie Murray, who hit .298 with 12 home runs and 46 RBIs over 88 games – it wasn't until 1980 that the team brought home a championship.

In 1979, a young Cal Ripken Jr. made his O's debut. At the age of 18, the future "Iron Man" played in 17 games for the O's that season -- giving fans a small glimpse of what they could expect in 1980. When the 1980 season came around, Ripken, Hazewood and the O's combined to win 72 games and the club earned a chance to bring home a Southern League Championship to the city of Charlotte for the first time in nine years (1971 Hornets). Under manager Jimmy Williams, the O's beat the Memphis Chicks 3-1 in the playoffs to capture their first of two championships in franchise history. The 1980 team also welcomed 198,528 fans through the gates – a Charlotte baseball record at the time.

Four years later, the O's brought home another championship. After winning the second-half of the season, the O's beat Greenville in the first round (3-1) and then defeated Knoxville in the finals (3-0) to win their second Southern League title. It was another great day for the O's and the city of Charlotte. Sadly, in 1985, there was a fire at Crockett Park and the Crocketts and the city of Charlotte lost a lot. Still, the Crocketts did everything they could to play the season on time. With help from many people, they did just that. The team played baseball in 1985, 1986, and again in 1987. After that, however, the Crockett family sold the team to George Shinn, who renamed the team the Knights and the ballpark Knights Park for the 1988 season. Eventually, Shinn left Charlotte for Fort Mill (1989) and the Knights spent 25 seasons in Fort Mill, SC before returning home to Charlotte on April 11, 2014.

Knights Stadium Knotes

THE FINALE: 2013's finale marked the final game at Knights Stadium after more than 24 years. The Knights, however played 25 total seasons in Fort Mill, SC (1989 was spent in a temporary facility) -- after one season as the Knights in Charlotte (1988). Knights Castle debuted in 1990 and the Knights were the Double-A affiliate of the Chicago Cubs (1989-92) before moving to Triple-A in 1993 to become an affiliate of the Cleveland Indians (93-94). Charlotte won their first Governors' Cup Championship in 1993 with manager Charlie Manuel at the helm. The Knights switched affiliates in 1995 -- this time becoming the Triple-A affiliate of the Florida Marlins from 1995-1998. The Chicago White Sox entered the picture in 1999 and have been the parent club ever since. They will continue their affiliation with the White Sox through the 2020 season after signing a six-year extension this past December.

KNIGHTS STADIUM NO-HITTERS: The Knights celebrated "Christmas in July" on Thursday, July 25 at Knights Stadium as Andre Rienzo tossed a seven-inning no-hitter in a 1-0 win over the Indianapolis Indians. For the Knights, it was the third no-hitter in franchise history and first since Carlos Torres threw a five-inning perfect game on June 18, 2009 in Pawtucket. Before that, the last Knights no-hitter was thrown by Tetsu Yofu on August 1, 2004 at Knights Stadium. Rienzo threw the no-no in game one of a doubleheader against the Indians. For Rienzo, it was his third win during the month of July (all in consecutive starts). He allowed just five baserunners on the evening en route to Charlotte's second-straight win over first-place Indianapolis. He walked four batters and had one batter reach on an error. In all, Rienzo threw 112 pitches - 69 for strikes. Charlotte's only run of the game came on an Andy Wilkins RBI single in the bottom of the second inning off Indians starter Stolmy Pimentel (2-3, 2.60). Rienzo was promoted to the White Sox on July 30 - just five days after his no-hitter. At the time of his promotion, the Brazilian native was leading the International League in strikeouts (113), and also ranked tied for the league lead in complete games (three), and second in shutouts (1). He made his Major League debut later that night and became the first Brazilian-born pitcher in Major League Baseball history.

'93 CHAMPION KNIGHTS: 1993, the Charlotte Knights captured the International League crown in their first year of play at the Triple-A leavel. Knight's third baseman Jim Thome was named by Baseball America as Triple-A Player of the Year after leading the IL in average (.332), RBI (102), and on-base percentage (.441), while finishing second in home runs (25), fourth in runs (85) third in total bases (240), second in walks (76), and second in slugging percentage. DH Sam Horn also had an all-star season in which he paced all the minor leagues with 38 HR and led the IL with a .600 slugging percentage. Knights manager Charlie Manuel led the IL to victory during the annual Triple-A All-Star Game.

REMEMBERING KNIGHTS STADIUM

Knights Stadium Knotes

MORE FINALE NOTES: Over 1,700 games were played at Knights Stadium from 1990-2013, including the Double-A All-Star game in 1992. The Knights made the playoffs four times – 1993, 1999, 2006, 2012 – capturing championships in both 1993 and 1999, respectively. The title in 1999 was won at Knights Stadium on September 17, 1999 over the Durham Bulls (2-1 win). Over 500 players were promoted to the majors from Charlotte and over 6.5 million fans (including 2013) passed through the gates over the 24 years.

KNIGHTS GO NATIONAL: The 1999 Knights team finished second in the South Division and earned a wild card spot in the International League playoffs. After defeating Scranton/WB in round one they would go on to defeat Durham to capture the IL Governors' Cup. The Knights advanced to the second-ever Triple-A World Series in Las Vegas where they would receive national television coverage on ESPN 2. The Knights would fall to the Vancouver Canadians three games to two. Tom Spencer was named International League Manager of the Year, the first Charlotte manager to achieve that honor.

MANNY BEING MANNY: Knights OF Manny Ramirez was named International League Batter of the Week for August 22-28 in 1993. In 40 games at Charlotte, Ramirez belted 14 HR and 36 RBIs while batting .317 with a .690 slugging percentage.

TRIPLEHEADER: Thanks to Mother Nature snowing out eight of the Knights first nine games in 1996, the Charlotte Knights played 13 games from June 9 through June 16. During this span, the Knights had one tripleheader and three doubleheaders. The Knights won seven of the 13 games.

AWARD SEASON: The Knights had five players receive the International League Player of the Week in 2006, with three batters and two pitchers recognized by the league. Ryan Sweeney was the first Knights player to earn the honor, capturing the IL's Batter of the Week award for the week of April 24-30. Josh Fields was also named batter of the week for May 8-14. Heath Phillips became the first Knights pitcher to receive an award, getting recognition for the week of May 15-21. Phillips was followed by Sean Tracey, who received his award for June 19-25, and Bobby Smith, who received the IL's third Batter of the Week award for the team after the week of August 7-13. In addition to the five weekly honors, Heath Phillips was named the International League's Most Valuable Pitcher following the 2006 season.

KNIGHTS JOIN WHITE SOX ORGANIZATION: As the 1999 season began, the Knights again changed hats, as Charlotte ended their four-year affiliation with the Marlins and headed into a Player Development Contract with the Chicago White Sox. The Knights finished the season by winning the International League Governors' Cup Championship.

ALL-KNIGHTS STADIUM TEAM

Charlie Manuel - Manager

Before Manuel was guiding the Phillies to consecutive World Series appearances in the late 2000's, the Northfork, WV native led the Charlotte Knights to their first-ever Governors' Cup title back in 1993 - his only season at the helm of the Knights. Under Manuel, the Knights went 86-55 in the regular season - their first season in the International League - before beating Rochester in five games in the Governors' Cup finals. The 86 regular season wins are the most in the Knights Stadium era. .

Josh Phegley - C

Phegley made his Knights debut in 2011 and hit two home runs in 22 games for the team. His break-out campaign, however, came during the 2012 season. His solid first-half play earned him a spot on the International League All-Star Team. In all, Phegley hit .266 with six home runs and 48 RBIs for the Knights in 2012. At the end of the year he was rewarded for his stellar defense with the MiLB Rawlings Gold Glove Award. The white sox former first round pick was back in 2013 and once again named to the IL All-Star Team, but did not participate because he was called up.

Jason Bourgeois - 2B

Speedster Jason Bourgeois appeared in 211 games for the Knights over parts of two seasons (2007-2008). In 2007, he hit .311 with seven home runs, 34 RBIs and 23 stolen bases. The Texas native returned to the Knights a year later and hit .286 with nine home runs, five triples, 48 RBIs and 30 stolen bases.

Mark Lewis - SS

Lewis had a career-year in 1993 for the Knights. He batted .284 with 17 home runs and 67 RBIs for the champion-winning Knights. He led the team with 93 runs scored and finished second in the entire league in that category. He also had 144 hits, 30 doubles, and four triples that season for Charlie Manuel's squad. Lewis came back to Charlotte in 1994 and hit .259 with eight home runs and 34 RBIs - giving him 25 career Knights home runs and 101 RBIs.

Billy McMillon - OF

McMillon was an International League All-Star and the league's Rookie of the Year in 1996. In 97 games that season, McMillon hit a remarkable .352 with 17 home runs and 70 RBIs for the Knights -- his first year in Triple-A. A year later, the Clemson product hit .279 with eight home runs over 57 games.

Dayan Viciedo - UTILITY

Viciedo posted back-to-back 20 home run seasons for the Knights from 2010-2011. The Cuban native hit .274 with 20 long balls and 47 RBIs for the Knights over 86 games in 2010. The next year he compiled a .296 batting average with 20 home runs and 96 RBIs. His 40 home runs (over two seasons) rank seventh all-time in franchise history. Over his two years, he played third base, first base, DH, and right field for the Knights.

Chad Ogea - SP

The ace of the Charlotte Knights championship team in 1993 was Chad Ogea. At just 22 years old, Ogea posted a 13-8 mark with a 3.81 ERA in 29 starts. The Louisiana native tossed a team-high two complete games that season and tied for the league lead in wins (13) and games started (29). A year later, he was back in Charlotte and this time went 9-10 with a 3.85 ERA in 24 games (23 starts). Ogea also completed a league-high six games that season. His 22 combined wins are fourth-best in Knights franchise history.

Charlie Leesman - SP

Leesman went 12-10 with a 2.47 ERA for the Knights in 26 starts in 2012. The Ohio native finished second in the IL in ERA and was tied for third in wins with three other pitchers. His 12 wins helped lead the Knights to their first playoff appearance since 2006. He was named as an International League All-Star in 2012 as well. The lefty was back in 2013, pitching in 16 games for the Knights. With 223.1 innings pitched he qualifies for the Knights career ERA record. Leesman's franchise ERA of 3.02 ranks him fourth in club history.

Ross Gload - 1B

An IL All-Star in 2003, Gload finished third in the International League with a .315 batting average that season. Also that season, the powerful first baseman launched 18 home runs with 70 RBIs. He led the IL with 266 total bases and tied for second in doubles with 40. In 2005, Gload hit .366 with 15 home runs and 45 RBIs in just 59 games for the Knights. He is the Knights franchise leader in batting average with a stunning .332 mark.

Jim Thome - 3B

Thome, a future Hall-of-Famer, spent one season in Charlotte and it was a memorable one. At the young age of 22, Thome hit a league-best .332 with 25 home runs and 102 RBIs for the Knights, who went on to win their first International League championship in what was their first year in the league. Thome was a big part of the team and a year later, he became a staple in Cleveland's lineup.

Jordan Danks - OF

Danks spent parts of four seasons with the Knights and along with his exceptional defense, he was a force with the bat as well. He is in Knights franchise leader in triples with 12. He has 36 home runs and 165 RBIs in his Knights career and was the winner of a MiLB Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 2011. He ranks first in club history in walks, second in runs scored, second in at-bats, second in hits, third in doubles, and second in games played,.

Joe Borchard - OF

Borchard is the Knights career leader in nearly every offensive category. For four-straight seasons (2002-05), Borchard was a staple in Charlotte's lineup. He hit 78 home runs over the four-year span and had 227 RBIs. His 439 hits are nearly 200 more than the next best player in Knights history. Borchard was a first round selection (12th overall pick) of the White Sox in the 2000 draft.

Sam Horn - DH

A 1993 All-Star, Horn led the power-packed Knights with 38 home runs - the most by a Knights player in a single-season! In all, the 6'5" slugger mashed .269 and drove home 96 RBIs. His home run total led the International League and helped lead the Knights to the International League Championship in their first year in the IL. Horn finished with 226 home runs over his 15-year Minor League career. He hit 62 Major League home runs as well.

Edwin Almonte - RP

Almonte is the Knights franchise leader in saves for a season and a career. In 2002, Almonte saved 26 games, which still ranks as the all-time high in a season for a Knights reliever. The following season, he saved 14 games adding to his total. In all, Almonte's 40-career saves as a Knights reliever is the one more than Donn Pall's 39. Almonte could have had more saves too, but on July 1, 2003, he was traded to the New York Mets, along with Andrew Salvo and Royce Ring for Hall-of-Famer Roberto Alomar.

Donn Pall - RP

Pall spent three seasons playing at Knights Stadium and was a solid reliever for the club from 1996-98. Pall appeared in 28 games for the Knights in 1996 and saved a team-high 17 games. In all, Pall accumulated 39 saves over the three-year span and ranks second in Knights franchise history in that category. He's appeared in 126 games for the Knights, which also ranks second in Knights franchise history.

WHITE SOX EXHIBITION GAMES

EXHIBITION GAME RECAPS

2015: In the first major league exhibition game played within the city limits of Charlotte since 1984, the Charlotte Knights topped their parent club Chicago White Sox 10-2 in front of 10,556 fans at BB&T Ballpark - the second largest crowd in BB&T Ballpark history. The Knights used a trio of two-run home runs and scored in six of eight possible innings in the offensive display.

Jared Mitchell and Neftali Soto led the Knights offensive attack with three RBI apiece. Trayce Thompson joined Mitchell and Leury Garcia as the three Knights with a multi-hit effort, tallying three singles in his four at-bats. An error led to two unearned runs in the seventh inning, extending the Charlotte lead to 10-1. The Sox added a run in the ninth when George Kottaras doubled and scored on a Jason Coats single, cutting the lead to 10-2. The Knights pitching staff of Shawn Haviland, Junior Guerra, Jarrett Casey and Daniel Webb kept the major league hitters at bay, scattering eight hits over nine innings.

2018: Powered by a four-run second inning, the Chicago White Sox beat the Charlotte Knights 9-5 Monday in an exhibition game held at BB&T Ballpark for the first time since 2015. Reynaldo Lopez pitched 2.2 shutout innings and Avisail Garcia hit a two-run home run in the top of the second leading the way for the White Sox in their last tune-up before Opening Day.

Donn Roach (0-1) got the starting nod for the Knights pitching four innings, surrendering seven hits and five runs to the White Sox. Charlotte's bullpen settled down as the game went on with its last three pitchers -- Thyago Vieira, Brad Goldberg, and Jorge Rondon-allowing just one run and no hits over the final three innings.

Matt Davidson got things going for the White Sox as he grounded into a fielder's choice to score former Knights second baseman Yoan Moncada to give the White Sox an early 1-0 lead in the first. Moncada put together a nice day at the plate for the White Sox going 2-for-2 with one RBI and one run scored. Other notable former Knights appearing in the game for the White Sox included Yolmer Sanchez, Juan Minaya, Danny Farquhar, Tyler Saladino, and Adam Engel.

The Knights broke through in the seventh inning as Patrick Leonard scored on a wild pitch followed by a two-run home run by Juan Perez to cut the deficit to 8-3. Casey Gillaspie added a home run of his own in the ninth inning, a solo shot off of Drew Hasler. The Knights managed eight hits on the day off a veteran White Sox pitching staff.

2016 TRIPLE-A ALL-STAR GAME RECAP

2016 HIGH SCHOOL HOME RUN DERBY WINNERS

2016 TRIPLE-A HOME RUN DERBY

This Story is Available Online at BaseballAmerica.com Story by: Alex Simon

CHARLOTTE—After being in lock step through the first two rounds with Pawtucket (Red Sox)'s Chris Marrero, Reno's Kyle Jensen knew he had to put up a big number in the final round if he wanted to win.

"If you go first, you have to set the bar high," said Jensen, playing in the Diamondbacks organization at 28 years old. "That's what I did, but the other guy just went on a freaking tear. It was fun to watch."

After Jensen hit 17 in his round, Marrero—the 15th overall pick in 2006 by the Nationals—seemingly homered on every swing he took, hitting 18 to win the 2016 Triple-A Home Run Derby Tuesday night in Charlotte. And, thanks to a stretch of seven straight swings with a home run, Marrero did it with a full minute to spare.

"I knew I needed a lot of home runs, but the adrenaline just kept going," Marrero said. "I kept going with the fans and swinging, and my guy throwing was throwing perfect."

Marrero got in a groove with Mike Moore, a coach at the Carolina Baseball Center and a former catcher at Tennessee. The two linked up for a practice round in the batting cage, and both Marrero and Moore say they clicked.

"That was unbelievable. That was a display," Moore said. "I just tried to put it where he wanted it. It was fun to watch him do it."

Marrero hit 10 home runs in the first round and 16 in the second round, and the 18 home runs in three minutes of the final round gave him 44 bombs in just 11 minutes at the plate.

Jensen finished the first two rounds with the same numbers as Marrero, but took a much different route to get there. He went homerless in the first two minutes of the first round but exploded in the last two, hitting all 10 first round homers in the last two minutes.

"I was trying to get comfortable, trying to get relaxed," Jensen said. "Once you get in that groove, you just have to go with it."

Both Jensen and Marrero peppered the left field stands with balls, pulling balls off the scoreboard and onto a grassy knoll to the side of it. Each batter earned standing ovations from the crowd after multiple streaks of three-or-more straight swings with a homer, with Marrero's streak of seven straight sending the crowd into pandemonium.

"Anytime you can go out and show the people what you can do, it's a good time," Jensen said. "But what he did? That's impressive right there."

Marrero said he didn't think he's hit homers on seven straight swings like tonight, but he's thankful that he did after Jensen's 17-homer round to start the finals.

"I thought, 'Wow, this guy is unstoppable," Marrero said. "But I knew, if I got into a little groove, I had a chance. And it was fun. This is one of the best parks ever."

Oklahoma City's (Dodgers) Rob Segedin was the last batter in the first two rounds, leading all sluggers with 12 homers in the first round and putting up 13 in the second round. But he fell one homer short of a three-way tie with 25 home runs. Jesus Montero (Blue Jays) of Buffalo advanced with seven homers in the first round, but only hit five in the second round for a two-round total of 12.

Two batters—Toledo's (Tigers) Chad Huffman and Riley Zayicek of Lake Norman High, Mooresville, N.C., one of the two high school participants—fell one homer short of the second round with six. Travis Taijeron of Las Vegas (Mets) hit five, and Trent Alley of Charlotte (N.C.) Country Day School hit two. In total, the fans in Charlotte witnessed 143 home runs on the night, with Marrero's 44 earning him the championship belt. He said it is the coolest trophy he's ever won.

"It's a memory I'm going to remember for the rest of my life," Marrero said.

2016 TRIPLE-A ALL-STAR GAME RECAP

This Story is Available Online at MiLB.com Story by: Bob Sutton/Special to MiLB.com

CHARLOTTE, N.C. -- It's been a magical three-day run for Pawtucket's Chris Marrero.

The veteran outfielder/first baseman slugged a solo homer off the bench to earn MVP honors and put the finishing touch on the International League's 4-2 victory over the Pacific Coast League at the Triple-A All-Star Game on Wednesday night at BB&T Ballpark.

Two days after winning the Triple-A Home Run Derby, Marrero crushed a solo blast to center field in the eighth inning.

"Just came out here and had fun," said Marrero, who had two at-bats in a reserve role. "[lowa's

The 28-year-old, who spent 39 games with Charlotte last season, also was named IL Player of the Week on Monday. It was an All-Star Game defined by pitching, aside from a few home runs.

Indians No. 11 prospect Erik Gonzalez of the Columbus Clippers got the IL on the board with a solo shot in the bottom of the second. Lehigh Valley's Andrew Knapp, the Phillies' ninth-ranked prospect, tied the game with a solo homer off Reno's Braden Shipley in the fourth, clearing the wall in left for an opposite-field blast.

The IL scored the go-ahead run in the fifth on an RBI groundout by Lehigh Valley's Cam Perkins. Travis Taijeron of the Las Vegas 51s made his return trip to the Triple-A All-Star Game worth it. Playing the entire game at designated hitter, he opened the scoring with a two-run homer in the second and was named the PCL's Top Star.

"You'd love to move up and all that," Taijeron said. "[Las Vegas manager] Wally [Backman] preaches to give it 110 percent every game." Taijeron said he learned from last year's Midsummer Classic -- where he played as a reserve -- and made the most of his repeat appearance. "New town, new experience," he said. "Definitely having four at-bats, you get locked in. Definitely a full night."

Backman, who managed the PCL squad, said Taijeron has remained committed to improving and could fit in at the next level as a corner outfielder.

"I think Travis is motivated," Backman said. "He has been overlooked for a long time. ... I think someone is going to give a guy like that a chance."

Taijeron, 27, has been in the Mets organization since he was drafted out of Cal Poly Pomona in 2011. He has 13 homers for Las Vegas after smashing 25 last year. His All-Star blast came on a 1-2 pitch after he'd fallen into an 0-2 hole.

"Middle away, down, just where I like it," he said of the delivery from Rochester left-hander Jason Wheeler. "I knew I got it well."

For the IL, Gonzalez also had a moment in the field at shortstop to go with his home run. He began a ninth-inning double play with a quick flip in one of the game's dazzling defensive plays. "I did it [to] have fun with the game," Gonzalez said. "When I do that, it's really fun for me."

Durham Bulls right-hander Austin Pruitt got the win. A starter during the regular season, he threw a scoreless fifth inning on 16 pitches.

"I had no idea," he said of picking up the victory. "I was thinking about trying to get people out. I got through the inning with no runs [and one walk]."

IL pitchers combined on a three-hitter with nine strikeouts.

Clippers right-hander Shawn Armstrong came through in a clutch moment, entering with a runner on second base and one out in the seventh. He struck out D-backs No. 12 prospect Jack Reinheimer and Padres No. 15 prospect Carlos Asuaje to quell the threat.

The only player in the game with more than one hit was Rochester Red Wings second baseman Jorge Polanco, who had an infield single and a double for the IL.

CREDENTIALING INFORMATION

Contact Information: Please contact Knights VP of CommunicationsTommy Viola by phone at (704) 274-8203 or by email at tommyv@charlotteknights.com; or Knights Media Relations Assistant Aaron Cheris via email at aaronc@charlotteknights.com, anytime during the season. Please note that 2019 Knights media credentials will be issued only to accredited media members at the discretion of Charlotte Knights PR staff.

Season Credentials: Will only be issued to legitimate news gathering organizations that cover the Charlotte Knights on a daily basis. To apply for season media credentials, please return completed 'Media Credential Application' form and Minor League Baseball's 'Terms and Conditions of Credentials for Minor League Baseball Events' form.

Daily Credentials: Will be issued to those individuals or organizations who do not qualify for season credentials. Daily credentials will also be issued to radio and TV stations when the need arises for extra personnel and to newspaper reporters providing extra coverage. Once a daily credential request is approved and on file, the Knights require at least 24-hour notice for all daily credential requests. Credential requests can be sent via email (tommyv@charlotteknights.com or aaron@charlotteknights.com) or by fax to (704) 274-8330.

Media Credential Pickup: Upon approval of credential request, media members may pick up daily credentials at the Media Entrance at BBB&T Ballpark during normal business hours.

In-Season Interviews: The Knights Media Office will assist accredited members of the media in setting up interviews. The best time for game-day interviews with players and/or coaches is prior to team stretch or right after batting practice. BP times can vary daily and it's best to email or call in advance. Once team stretch begins (about an hour before BP) interviews are typically prohibited until after BP. Please keep in mind that several players go through extra development drills and instruction prior to team stretch and not all players will always be available.

Media Access: Under Major League Baseball regulations and in accordance with the Charlotte Knights policy, media access is available 3 1/2 hours before game time and concludes 45-minutes before game time (ex.: 7:04 start; media access begins at 3:35-6:20), and will resume 15 minutes after each game. Media members interested in one-on-one interviews and access to players before batting practice are asked to notify Tommy Viola or Aaron Cheris. Please note that there will be no media access granted inside the clubhouse before or after a game unless scheduled with a member of the Knights PR staff. No media access will be granted between games of a doubleheader.

Charlotte Knights Press Box: The Knights press box is open to all accredited media for game notes, stats, lineups, and other information. Press box seating is for working media members only and is based on availability. The press box at BB&T Ballpark is a working environment and media members should respect each other's work space.

Field Access: Appropriately credentialed media are permitted access to the field and dugout areas, but are not permitted to cross the foul lines, particularly when the team is taking batting practice. Media members must leave the field and dugout areas no later than one hour prior to game time.

Photographer Rules: Photographers are not permitted in the actual dugout or on the field once the game begins. Photographers are permitted to shoot in camera areas adjacent to home and visiting dugouts.

Use of Photography/Video: Media outlets needing use of Knights photography or Knights video may contact Tommy Viola. Accredited members of the media may use Knights photographs for non-endorsement projects only.

Knights on Social Media: The Charlotte Knights official Twitter handle is @KnightsBaseball. The team can also be found on Facebook (https://www.facebook.com/CharlotteKnightsBaseball/) and Instagram (Instagram.com/KnightsBaseball).

Autograph Policy: Under no circumstances are credentialed media members permitted to seek autographs on the field of play or in either clubhouse. Members of the media found to be in violation of this policy may have their credentials revoked by a member of the Knights PR staff.

Knights Radio & TV Information

Charlotte Knights baseball will once again return to the airwaves in 2019 as all 140 games of the Knights season will once again be heard on 730 The Game ESPN Charlotte. Back for his 22nd season behind the microphone will be the "Voice of the Charlotte Knights" Matt Swierad, who can be heard on all 140 broadcasts. Mike Pacheco returns for his 15th season to join Swierad in the booth for all home broadcasts. As part of the partnership, fans can also listen to the broadcast online at espncharlotte.net or charlotteknights.com.

MATT SWIERAD - VOICE OF THE CHARLOTTE KNIGHTS

Prior to joining the Knights for the 1998 season, Swierad spent seven years in the Class-A South Atlantic League with the Hickory Crawdads (1994-97), Hager-stown Suns (1993), and Gastonia Rangers (1991-92). In addition to his work with the Knights, Swierad serves as the radio play-by-play Voice of Charlotte 49ers Basketball (Atlantic-10 Conference) and Football while also hosting the Basketball and Football Radio Coaches Shows. Swierad has also handled television play-by-play duties for UNC Charlotte, UT Chattanooga, Jacksonville University, University of South Florida, the Southern Conference, the Sun Belt Conference, C-USA, the Big South Conference, SportsChannel Florida, Fox Sports Net, and ESPN Regional Television.

During the 2005 season Swierad reached the major leagues for the first time, being selected from over 150 applicants nationally to broadcast for the San Diego Padres. He sat in for legendary Friars broadcaster Jerry Coleman the last weekend in July while Coleman was inducted into the broadcasting wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY.

MIKE PACHECO - RADIO ANNOUNCER

Mike Pacheco (pictured below, left) enters his 15th season as analyst/play by play announcer alongside the voice of the Charlotte Knights, Matt Swierad. In the offseason, the seasoned broadcaster handles sidelines and offers commentary for Winthrop University's men's basketball television broadcasts while performing play by play on the women's basketball television broadcasts. Additionally, he provides play by play for all women's road broadcasts and color commentary for the men's road games on the Winthrop Sports Network.

Pacheco is also the co-host and producer for the Carolina Panthers post-game show on the Panthers Radio Network and WBT-AM in Charlotte. The past three years, he has emceed the popular TPG Sports Group Sports Career Conference. From 2005-2012, he was studio host on the Boston College football and basket-ball network broadcasts for IMG College. The 25-year broadcast veteran came to the Knights after four seasons as the director of broadcasting and play by play announcer for the Kannapolis Intimidators.

Prior to his stint with Kannapolis, Pacheco worked as executive producer and director of marketing for Sports Radio 610 WFNZ in Charlotte. Pacheco spent two years at ABC News Radio where he assisted in day-to-day news coverage of major events including the Flight 800 crash and 1996 Presidential Election.In 1995, Pacheco produced Red Sox Radio Network broadcast for American Radio Systems. While with ARS, he produced for the company's other sports properties including Boston College football and basketball.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive game hitting streak keeps going as long as a player keeps hitting. If he makes it through an entire game without a hit, there's still one chance to keep the streak alive: If he does not get an official at-bat. Simply put, if all the at-bats in a game result in a walk, getting hit by a pitch, reaching on defensive interference or laying down a sacrifice bunt, the streak is alive. There is a hitch: Sacrifice Flies do not count.

Consecutive Games Played Streak: A playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Earned Run Average (ERA): Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and divide that total by the number of innings pitched.

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total of putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Hold Rule: The hold is not an official statistic, but it was created as a way to credit middle relief pitchers for a successful outing. If a reliever comes into a game to protect a lead, gets at least one out and leaves without giving up that lead, he is credited with a hold. You cannot get a save and a hold in the same game.

Magic Number: Add one to the number of games left in the season, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the closest team.

On-Base Percentage: Add hits, walks, hit by pitches, then divide by at-bats plus walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Player Limits: The Knights roster can have 25 active players.

Quality Start: Defined as a start when a pitcher lasts six or more innings and gives up three or less earned runs.

Saves: A pitcher earns a save by meeting all three of the following criteria: 1) he is the last pitcher in a game won by his club; 2) he is not the winning pitcher; 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at-bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches or times awarded first base on interference or obstruction).
