Today's Preview: The Clinton LumberKings (A, Mariners) meet the Kane County Cougars (A, Diamondbacks) for the second time this season with the opener of a five-game series. The teams opened the season and saw their first two games (in Kane County) snowed and colded out. Forcing the teams to play a doubleheader on April 8th at Ashford University Field. The LumberKings took two of the first three meetings between the teams. The LumberKings trail the all-time series, dating back to 1991, 162 to 176. Since Clinton has been affiliated with the Seattle Mariners (2009) they trail in the head-to-head matchups 62 games to 74.

LumberKings Starter: Clay Chandler, 24, makes his 12th appearance and fifth start of the season for the Clinton LumberKings. The Kentucky native earned the win his last time out for a 6.1 inning outing in which he did not allow a run while scattering six hits, walking one, and striking out two against the Peoria Chiefs. Chandler began the season as a reliever for Clinton and moved into the starting rotation regularly following the trade of Tommy Romero to the Tampa Bay Rays. Since becoming a regular starter on May 22, Chandler has gone at least five innings in each of his starts. His season debut came against the Kane County Cougars on April 7th. Chandler did not allow a run to the Cougars during his debut holding them to just two hits over three innings while walking one and striking out six. Chandler has turned in some of his best work at home this season posting a 2-1 record and 2.93 ERA at Ashford University Field while going 0-0 with a 4.42 ERA on the road.

Cougars Starter: Mack Lemieux, 21, makes his 12th start and appearance of the season for the Kane County Cougars. The Florida native received a no decision his last time out for a six-inning outing in which he allowed two runs to the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers while walking none and striking out eight. Lemieux was the Opening Day starter for the Cougars against Clinton on April 7th and was hit hard over a 3.2 inning start, allowing four runs on seven hits. The Diamondbacks selected Lemieux in the 6th round of the 2016 MLB draft out of Palm Beach Community College, signing him for $278,500. Prior to the start of the season he was listed by MLB Pipeline as a Diamondbacks breakout prospect candidate. Prior to being selected by Arizona, he was taken by the Washington Nationals in the 14th round out of Jupiter High School but did not sign.

Last Time Out: Nick Wells turned in his team leading fifth quality start of the season and Greifer Andrade and Ryan Costello homered in an 8-2 Clinton LumberKings win over the Burlington Bees at Community Field on Thursday night. Andrade led the way for Clinton (33-26) at the plate with a 3-for-5 night that included a home run, a double, and three RBI. The LumberKings raced out to an early lead against Bees (25-35) starter Jose Soriano with a three-run rally in the top of the first inning. Ariel Sandoval walked with one out and was followed two pitches later by a Jack Larsen RBI double to center field. Costello then walked and Andrade followed two batters later with a two out two-run double down the line in left. In the top of the seventh, Costello added another run to the LumberKings lead with a solo home run. The big fly was his team leading ninth of the season and went out to the opposite field in left. The offense was more than enough for LumberKings starter Nick Wells who logged 6.1 innings and held the Bees to two seventh inning runs during his time out. Wells (4-3) struck out four while allowing just three hits and walked one to pick up his team leading fourth win of the season. Andrade added his third RBI of the night in the top of the ninth with a long solo home run to left off Bees reliever Keda De La Cruz. The win gives the LumberKings their fourth series win over their last five tries.

Good Greif: Greifer Andrade returned to the LumberKings roster for game one of their series with the Burlington Bees, being activated from the disabled list. In the series finale with Burlington on Thursday night, Andrade broke out to go 3-for-5, with two runs scored, a double, a home run, and three RBI. It was the first game this season that Andrade has collected three hits or more and the big fly was his second of the year.

Costello Goes Deep: Ryan Costello added to his team leading home run total in Thursday's win with his ninth big fly of the season. It also went for his 40th RBI of the season, also a team high. He now leads all Seattle Mariners minor leaguers in RBI.

A Leader on Defense: All-star Jack Larsen will be in Lansing this year for the 54th Midwest League All-Star Game. An honor that was primarily earned through his offensive numbers. Still Larsen, who takes great pride in his defense, comes into Thursday night's game with the highest fielding percentage among all outfielders in the league and has yet to commit an error, owning a 1.000 fielding percentage for the season.

Iron Men: The Clinton LumberKings have a few of the Midwest League iron men this season. Ariel Sandoval and Jack Larsen have played in 57 of the LumberKings 59 games thus far tying them with Corey Julks, Stuart Fairchild, and Jeter Downs for the most games played.

LumberKings All-Stars: The All-Star announcements are here and the Clinton LumberKings will be a well-represented team in Lansing on June 19th. Jack Larsen will start for the Western Division All-Stars while teammate Ryan Costello will come off the bench. Pitchers Ryne Inman and Collin Kober will represent Clinton and come out of the bullpen. All four of the LumberKings representatives will be making their first all-star game appearances of their professional career.

This date in baseball history: On this date in 1934, the Reds become the first team to travel in an airplane when Cincinnati GM Larry MacPhail flies 19 of his players to Chicago for a series against the Cubs. In 1946, New York will be the first team to fly on a regular basis, using a chartered a Douglas DC-4 that will become known as the 'Yankee Mainliner.'

Broadcast Information: Erik Oas returns for his second season as the "voice" of LumberKings baseball. All games will be broadcast live on 100.3 FM WCCI and online at LumberKings.com via the TuneIn Radio App.
