

Seasonal 50/50 Raffle Salesperson - OKC Dodgers Baseball Foundation

Job Description & Duties

Interested in working for one of the nation's premier Triple-A baseball teams? The OKC Dodgers Baseball Foundation is seeking motivated individuals to be the driving sales force behind the Foundation's 50/50 raffle. This seasonal position will start in April and run through the conclusion of the season. The ideal candidate will be punctual, hard-working and enthusiastic with excellent communication skills. The employee will be responsible for daily sales of raffle tickets to baseball fans within Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark, at either a stationary kiosk or as a roaming sales representative. The employee must be able to accept and account for sums of cash on a nightly basis. In addition, this person will communicate the 50/50 raffle rules and procedures clearly to potential customers. This position reports to the Foundation Coordinator, who oversees daily raffle operations. If you are selected for this position, you must attend a preseason training session. Additionally, employees will have opportunities to participate in nonprofit training courses and apply to take part in the OKC Dodgers Sales Academy. Any relocation costs will not be covered.

What is the 50/50 Raffle?

The 50/50 raffle takes place at all OKC Dodgers home games in accordance with Oklahoma State law, where one lucky winner receives 50% of the jackpot from that night's event, while the Foundation receives the remaining 50%.
