Today's Preview: The Clinton LumberKings (A, Mariners) meet the Dayton Dragons (A, Red) for the first and only time this season with the finale of a three-game series. In the two teams' only meeting, at Ashford University Field in Clinton, in 2017 the LumberKings won a three-game series, 2-1. The LumberKings trail the all-time series, dating back to 200, 50 to 54. Since Clinton has been affiliated with the Seattle Mariners (2009) they trail the head-to-head matchups 14 games to 17.

LumberKings Starter: Nick Wells, 22, makes his sixth start of the season for the LumberKings. The last time out for the lefty was the last time a LumberKings starter made it through five innings. Wells worked six innings against the Bowling Green Hot Rods at Ashford University Field. He allowed just one run on four hits while hitting a batter, walking two, and striking out four. The start was Wells longest of the season but did not translate to a win as the LumKings fell to the Hot Rods 2-1 in 10 innings. The LumberKings opening day starter was originally drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays, out of high school, in the third round of the 2014 Draft. At the trade deadline, on July 31, 2015, he was traded to the Seattle Mariners. The Blue Jays sent Wells along with fellow left-handers Jacob Brentz and Rob Rasmussen to the Mariners in exchange for right-handed reliever Mark Lowe.

Dragons Starter: Tyler Mondile, 20, makes his sixth start of the season for the Dayton Dragons. He was hit hard his last time out against the Burlington Bees at Community Field. The righty matched a career high for hits, allowing 12, which lead to eight runs given up including three home runs, while walking two and striking out two. He was given a no decision for his 3.2 innings of work, his second consecutive start where he failed to make it through the fourth inning. Mondile was selected out of high school in New Jersey in the 6th round of the 2016 draft by the Cincinnati Reds and signed for his exact spot value of $309,700 to avoid a commitment to Florida State. He was one of the top pitching prospects in the state of New Jersey and actually the topped the number one pitching prospect in the state Jason Groome (drafted 12th overall by the Red Sox) in a 1-0 pitchers duel. The game was scheduled especially for the pitching match with proceeds going to charity, Mondile's going to support a local student battling brain cancer. His father Steve was a former scout with the Reds who left in the early 2000's to start his own business and played several seasons in the Minor Leagues while with the Baltimore Orioles. He throws a 9-1-94 MPH fastball, which works off of a "solid" curveball. Mondile has struggled with the home this season and has allowed three home runs in two of his five starts this season.

Last Time Out: Another big inning by Clinton LumberKings pitching proved to be the difference in a 9-5 loss to the Dayton Dragons on Saturday night at Ashford University Field. Six runs by the Dragons (15-11) in the fourth inning was too much for the LumberKings (14-11) to overcome in their fifth straight loss. Dayton started the scoring in the top of the first inning. Ryne Inman started for Clinton and hit the first batter of the game with his very first pitch of the night. A single, fly out, and sacrifice fly combination plated Jeter Downs for the Dragons first run of the night. Inman's (1-2) final inning was the fourth. The Dragons teed off for three home runs in the inning, starting with Hendrik Clementina's third home run of the series. The two-run home run that started the scoring in the fourth for Dayton was followed three batters later by a Downs two-run home run to center field. Michael Beltre capped the scoring in the inning with their third two-run home run of the frame. The loss marks the fifth straight for the LumberKings and hands them their second series loss of the season.

Mayday Mayday: The Clinton LumberKings opened the month of May in first place in the Western Division after going 14-6 in April. The team combined to post a 3.12 ERA in contrast to the pitching difficulties here in May. Over the first five games this month, LumberKings pitching has posted a 7.04 ERA, second highest in the league, which has lead to an 0-5 start for May. The Burlington Bees and LumberKings are now the only teams left without a win in May.

Public Enemy Number One: Through the first two games of the series LumberKings pitching has found it to be nearly impossible to retire Hendrik Clementina. The slugging catcher has homered three times in this series and in three of his last four games. In Saturday nights loss, Clementina started the six-run fourth inning with the first of three two-run home runs in the inning. His two home runs in the series opener was his first professional career multi-career home run game. Clementina brings in seven RBI for the series into the finale Sunday afternoon.

Sinking Fast: Going into the second game of the homestand, game two of the three game set with the Bowling Green Hit Rods, the LumberKings owned a 3.00 ERA as a team which ranked as the best ERA in the Midwest League. Since then, the starting staff has faltered and the team ERA has ballooned to 3.95 which now ranks as the fifth best ERA in the league.

Roster Move: The LumberKings announced just their third roster move of the season, but second of the series, before Sunday's game. Left-handed reliever Chris Castellanos, who recorded the final out on Saturday night for Clinton, has been sent down to Extended Spring Training, while 2017 LumberKing Marvin Gorgas has been promoted from Extended Spring Training. Gorgas will make his 2018 season debut with Clinton after appearing in 12 games for the LumberKings last season and posting a microscopic 0.91 ERA before spending the rest of his season with the Modesto Nuts of the California League.

Spent Bullpen: For the fourth straight game and for the sixth time in the last seven starts LumberKings starters failed to turn in a performance of at least five innings on Saturday night. The poor turn through the starting rotation for Clinton has led to more work for the bullpen which has now pitched the majority of Clinton's innings this season, 111 innings pitched to 108.

This date in baseball history: On this date in 1906, at Pittsburgh's Exposition Park, the Pirates become the first team to cover the grass to prevent it from getting wet during a rain storm. A canvas tarp is used to keep the infield dry for tomorrow's contest against the Cubs.

Broadcast Information: Erik Oas returns for his second season as the "voice" of LumberKings baseball. All games will be broadcast live on 100.3 FM WCCI and online at LumberKings.com via the TuneIn Radio App.

Today's Starting Pitcher

#18 Nick Wells

Age: 22

Born: February 21, 1996

Resides: Alexandria, Virginia

Acquired: Acquired by Seattle along with LH Rob Rasmussen and LH Nick Brentz from the Toronto Blue Jays in exchange for RHP Mark Lowe on July 31

LAST TIME OUT: Wells turned in his first quality start of the season his last time out. Over six innings he held the Bowling Green Hot Rods to one run. He was given a no decision for the start and walked two batters while striking out four.

AGAINST THE DRAGONS: This will be Wells first career start against the Dayton Dragons.

2017: Made 25 starts with A Clinton. Along with Ljay Newsome was the only starting pitcher to begin the season in the rotation and end the season in the rotation. Set a professional career high for strikeouts during his first outing of the season. The lefty struck out nine Beloit Snappers at Ashford University Field on April 10th but received a no decision for his work.
