Today's Preview: The Clinton LumberKings (A, Mariners) meet the Cedar Rapids Kernels (A, Twins) for the second time this season with the finale of a three game-set. This will be the Kernels first visit to Clinton in 2018, the teams played just one of their scheduled three-game series in Cedar Rapids April 13 through April 15 due to poor weather. The LumberKings trail the all-time series, dating back to 1963, 432 to 463. Since Clinton has been affiliated with the Seattle Mariners (2009) they trail the head-to-head matchups 68 games to 85.

LumberKings Starter: Oliver Jaskie, 22, makes his eighth start of the season for the LumberKings. The Michigan native took the loss his last time out for a four-inning outing against the Peoria Chiefs on the road. Jaskie allowed four runs on four hits while walking four and striking out one. The four walks tied a season high in free passes surrendered while the one strikeout was the lowest strikeout figure by Jaskie in a start this season. The lefty is listed as one of the top prospects on the LumberKings roster, MLB Pipeline currently has him listed as the 25th best prospect in the organization the second highest on the team. The Seattle Mariners drafted Jaskie in the 6th round out of the University of Michigan where he was teammate with 2017 LumberKing Johnny Slater. During his junior season he tied the school's single season strikeout record of 170 set in 1970 by future Major League Jim Bouton.

Kernels Starter: Brusdar Graterol, 19, makes his fourth appearance and start of the season for the Cedar Rapids Kernels. The Venezuelan native earned the win his last time out. He worked 5.2 shutout innings against the Quad Cities River Bandits in Cedar Rapids. He gave up just two hits while walking one and striking out a professional career high 10. Graterol brings in a string of 10.2 scoreless innings. The righty is coming off a strong 2017 season in which he made his state side debut going 4-1 with a 2.70 ERA. The Minnesota Twins signed Graterol as an international free agent in 2015 for $150,000. Known for an electric fastball that sits 95-98 MPH but is known to regularly reach triple digits which work off two breaking balls his primary being a slider. MLB Pipeline currently ranks him as the seventh best prospect in the Twins organization.

Last Time Out: A quality start by Ray Kerr went to waste in a Clinton LumberKings 6-4 loss to the Cedar Rapids Kernels on Saturday night at Ashford University Field. The third straight quality start by LumberKings (21-17) pitching could not prevent a three-run Kernels (18-19) eighth that proved to be the difference. The game seesawed back and forth for the first six innings. Both teams traded first inning runs before the Kernels took their second lead of the night in the top of the third inning. Three straight singles to open the inning against Kerr loaded the bases. Two batters later Shane Carrier drove home a run with an RBI ground out to second. Leading 3-2, the Kernels added to their lead in the top of the eighth inning. De La Cruz (0-2) was charged with all three runs that scored in the inning. Cedar Rapids opened the frame with three straight singles to force home the first run and brought home the next two runs of the inning with a two-run single from Gore. Clinton rallied in the bottom of the ninth. Two out doubles from Ojeda and Thurman pulled the LumberKings to within two. Jared Finkel then induced a ground ball from Billy Cooke to end the game and set up a rubber match for the three-game series Sunday afternoon. All of the Kernels 13 hits went for singles with the LumberKings recording the game's only extra base hits in the bottom of the ninth.

Too Little Too Late: It took until the bottom of the ninth inning but the LumberKings bats finally awoke. Two runs by the LumberKings in the closing frame were not enough to overtake the Kernels. Nick Thurman's second double of the season forced home both of the runs, his second hit of the game. The Thurman double also brought the tying run to the plate in the form of pinch hitter Ryan Costello who grounded out to end the game.

Not Eating Their Vegetables: Both the Clinton LumberKings and Cedar Rapids Kernels combined to register 21 hits on Saturday night. Still it was not until Dimas Ojeda double down the line in left in the bottom of the ninth inning that either collected an extra base hit. The Kernels, despite collecting 13 hits, had nothing but singles on the ledger while of the eight hits for the LumberKings six were good for just one base.

U-G-L-Y Eighth: The poor eighth inning pitching performances theme continued on Saturday night. The Cedar Rapids Kernels sent eight men to the plate in the top of the eighth inning to register three runs, a rally which would prove to be the decisive frame. The now makes it 15 runs that the LumberKings have given up in the eighth over their four games while the team has only allowed 20 runs total over the stretch. Over the first 34 games of the season LumberKings pitching had allowed just five runs in the eighth inning.

First for the Win: Despite early offense by the LumberKings it was the Cedar Rapids Kernels that struck first scoring a run in the top of the first inning. Although 11-10 on the season when their opponents score first, it's when the LumberKings score first that they do some of their best work. They are 13-5 on the season when scoring first, the second best winning percentage in the league, trailing only the Lansing Lugnuts.

Ojeda Tops the Charts: Dimas Ojeda added another hit on Saturday night in a 1-for-3 night at the plate that included a double an RBI and a run scored, given the high average by the LumberKings outfielder, it meant a drop in his average of one point from .369 to .368. The mark is still for the third best average in the Midwest League.

Closing Frames: One reason for the big innings by LumberKings pitching this season has been an inability to end frames. Clinton pitching is allowing an opponent batting average of .273 coming into this game when there are two outs and a runner(s) in scoring position.

This date in baseball history: On this date in 1918, in what will become a precursor of a tragic event, Indian outfielder Tris Speaker is struck on the head by a pitch thrown by Red Sox hurler Carl Mays. The submarine pitcher, who will fatally bean Ray Chapman with a pitch in 1920 as a member of the Yankees, denies Speaker's allegation that the pitch was intentional.

Broadcast Information: Erik Oas returns for his second season as the "voice" of LumberKings baseball. All games will be broadcast live on 100.3 FM WCCI and online at LumberKings.com via the TuneIn Radio App.
