Tuesday, April 16 at Louisville (7:00): LHP Sean Brady (1-0, 3.00) vs. TBA

Tonight's Game

The Clippers will send RHP Cody Anderson to the mound tonight, followed by RHP Michael Peoples. Durham will counter with RHP Aaron Slegers. The Clippers are 5-3 (.625) against right handers this season. Slegers has pitched against the Clippers once in his career, 4/21/18 in Rochester (ND, 6.0IP, 7H, 3R, 3ER, 0BB, 4K).

vs. the Bulls

Despite getting outscored 36-22 last year, the Clippers secured the season series with Durham for the fourth straight season (19-10, .655, since 2015). Last night's 12-run output marked just the fourth time in the last 50 games that they have scored more than five runs against Durham. Brandon Barnes has hit .370/.393/.778 with 2HR and 6RBI opposing the Bulls in eight career games.

Alone at the Top

Last night's victory allowed the Clippers to stay on top in the IL West, currently sitting a half game up (have been in 1st place every day this season, but never up by more than half a game). The Clippers have won the opening game in each of their three series this season, outscoring the opposition 24-9 (2-3, outscored 27-16 in all other games).

Big Bombs

The 2-run HR from Carlos Gonzalez marked the first runs scored in the opening inning for Columbus this season and also marked the first multi-run homer for the Clippers (first four homers were all solo shots). Yu Chang and Bobby Bradley followed up with 3-run shots of their own, giving the Clippers their first game with three multi-run HR since 6/27/18 vs. Louisville (three 2-run HR).

Free Passes for Freeman

Mike Freeman has had a difficult start swinging the bat (.167, 3x18), but has managed a .375OBP thanks to 6BB in 24PA. As a team, the Clippers have drawn 46BB, most in the IL and 11 more than 2nd place, Indianapolis and Louisville (Toledo is 4th; IL West accounts for 38% of IL walks). However, the Clipper offense also leads the IL with 92K (on pace to shatter franchise record by over 300).

Kipnis Rehab

Jason Kipnis was added on Major League rehab last Friday (on the DL since 3/25 with a strained right calf). Kipnis hit .240/.240/.320 with 0HR and 0RBI in 10 spring games (25AB). Since debuting for the Clippers in the 2010 IL Playoffs (hit for cycle in Governors' Cup clinching win at Durham), Kipnis has been an IL All-Star (2011) and had five rehab stints with Columbus (2014, three in 2017, 2019).

Rounding Into Form

Carlos Gonzalez went 2x5 with a HR last night to extend his minor league on base streak to 11 games (dates to 9/1/13). Going back to 5/6/09, Gonzalez has played 40 games in Triple-A between Columbus and Colorado Springs, hitting .346/.417/.641 with 11HR and 39RBI (has reached base in 35 of 40). He had his walk streak snapped at six games last night, but still has more walks (6) than strikeouts (5).

Catching Up

Brandon Barnes picked up the first 4-hit game for Columbus this year with his effor tlast night, running his hitting streak to two games (no player has reached three games yet this season). Barnes missed the first three games of the season, thanks in part to a foot injury sustained in pregame on 4/6 (scratched from lineup). He led the IL with 132 games played last year, leading the IL in doubles (39).

Yet to Cross

Thanks to a homer from Carlos Gonzalez, both he and Jason Kipnis tallied a run for Columbus last night, leaving Tim Federowicz as the only Clipper that has not scored a run this season (made it to second base on 4/7 vs. Indianapolis, subsequently thrown out at third). The last time Federowicz scored was due to his own bat (2-run HR), in last year's season finale for Cincinnati.

Save Yourself

The bullpen has recorded at least 3.0IP in every game this season (3.0IP last night was season low), but has yet to notch a save (blew only opportunity, Nick Wittgren on 4/7 vs. Indianapolis). Only Norfolk joins Columbus as teams without a save, but the Tides have only one win on the season (all other five-win teams, Lehigh Valley, Syracuse and Charlotte, have at least two saves).

This Date in Clipper History

4/12/2018

Adam Plutko (7.0IP, 1H, 8K) and Jeff Beliveau (2.0IP, 3K) combined for a 2-0 victory over Durham at Huntington Park. The win was the first of a breakout season that saw Plutko go 7-3 with a 1.70ERA in 14GS, including a bid at perfection on 4/28 vs. Indianapolis (retired all 23 batters faced, relieved due to pitch count) and a no-hitter at Syracuse on 6/2 (lost perfect game with one out in the 8th).

Huntington (Small) Park

In each of the first 10 years since the move downtown, Huntington Park has ranked among the top two in the IL in homers per game, totaling 2.16 per contest (1,539HR, 714 games). Last year, HP averaged over a pair per game for the second straight year (sixth time overall), but needed 5HR (all by the Clippers) on the season's final day to jump into 2nd place. The team total of 68HR was the lowest since 2015. Over the life of the park, the Clippers have hit fewer long balls than the opposition (785 to 768).

Looong Losing Streak Snapped

On 5/2 at Louisville, the Clippers snapped an 82 game losing streak when trailing after eight innings, tying the Bats in the 9th and prevailing 5-3 in extras. The win was the first for the Clippers since 7/19/16, a game in which they also victimized the Bats. After a 2017 in which they went 0-58 when trailing after eight, the Clippers led the IL with six such wins in 2018.

Ain't Over 'Til It's Over

Since the start of the 2014 season, no team has had more come from behind victories than the 177 posted by Columbus (two this season, most in IL) and no team has produced a better winning percentage when trailing than the .349 of the Clippers (no other team has won more than a third of games in which they have trailed over that time period; Scranton/WB ranks 2nd at .327). Columbus finished with the 2nd highest winning percentage in such games in 2014 (.356), led the circuit in 2015 (.365) and ranked 3rd in 2016 (.340). After a lackluster 2017 (.317, 7th), they posted the 2nd best winning percentage in 2018 (.368).

Trending Downward

The 4.34ERA posted by the Clippers in 2018 (worst since 2009) ranked 14th in the IL, yet the staff was tied for 5th in the league with 11 shutouts (two no-hitters) on the season. The Clippers could not beat 2017's 4.33, marking the third straight year that the team ERA had gotten worse. From 2011-16, the Clipper staff turned in a sub-4.00ERA five times in six seasons (zero such seasons from 1993-2010), including the best two ERAs of the past 28 years (3.33 in 2015 and 3.65 in 2016).

Walk-Off Magic

In the third home game of 2018, 4/14 vs. Durham, Nellie Rodriguez saved the Huntington Park crowd from the farce that extra innings have become, blasting a walk-off, 2-run homer in the 9th. However, the Clippers did eventually go into extras on 5/15 vs. Gwinnett, winning that abomination after sending one batter to the plate, despite the fact that the batter (Yu Chang) did not record an at bat (sac bunt, E1 allowed Brandon Barnes to score after he magically appeared on second to start the inning). On the year, the Clippers posted an IL-best 10-1 record in walk-offs, with half coming in regulation (five walk-off HR, including grand slam from Richie Shaffer, 5/15 vs. Charlotte).

Bombs Away

Columbus led the IL in games with a homer hit (94) and games with a homer allowed (90) in 2017, but played well under that pace in 2018, as they homered in just 75 of 140 games and allowed a longball in 86. Despite fewer games allowing a homer, the Clippers surrendered them in bunches, giving up at least 3HR in 11 games (133HR allowed was most in the IL). On offense, they had 10 games of at least 3HR (4/14 vs. Durham, snapped streak of 79 games with fewer than 3HR, dating to 6/22/17).

Columbus Fan Company

The 2018 Clippers led the IL in strikeouts for the second straight season, turning in 1,290K, just short of the franchise record (1,297, 2017). On the season a Clipper was punched out at least four times in a game on 11 occasions (Mike Papi, Yandy Diaz, Todd Hankins; Nellie Rodriguez twice and Brandon Barnes and Eric Haase three times) following a 2017 that saw 17 golden sombreros (three from Rodriguez, four from Richie Shaffer).

Stormy Leather

The Clipper defense fell to 6th in the IL last year, ending a run of three consecutive seasons ranked among the top three (2015-17 resulted in the three best seasons in franchise history; set records for fielding, .984, and fewest errors, 80, in 2017). Ironically, the Clippers fared worse when they played good defense last year, turning in a 38-36 record (35-31 with a miscue).

Fortune Favors the Bold

Joe Sever became the 15th Clipper to get cut down at the plate from an outfield assist in 2018 when Bobby Magallanes waved him home on 8/14. The Clippers lost that game and were 11-4 in such games, as a tragic fate for the runner was a good thing for the team. For the 2017 season, Rouglas Odor sent 16 men to their doom in 15 games, but Columbus was 11-4 in those games (won nine in a row from 5/10-6/27/17). In 2016, with Chris Tremie in the third base box, the Clippers were thrown out at home 13 times (went 9-4).

International Accolades

Shane Bieber (5/14-5/20, 5/21-5/27) and Adam Plutko (5/28-6/3) took three consecutive IL Pitcher of the Week awards for Columbus, while Francisco Mejia (6/25-7/1) and Eric Haase (7/2-7/8, 7/9-7/15) gave the Clippers three straight Batter of the Week honors. Brandon Barnes and Mejia were named to the All-Star team, while Yu Chang, Haase, Mitch Talbot and Adam Wilk were selected as replacements. Barnes was named to the Postseason All-Star Team.

Manager Profile

Tony Mansolino makes his Clippers debut in 2019, following six straight seasons with Chris Tremie at the helm (first to start six consecutive seasons as manager). Mansolino led Akron to the Eastern League Playoffs last year, following a Mills Cup Championship with Lynchburg in 2016. This season marks Mansolino's fourth year as a manager (all within the Cleveland organization), as he holds a career record of 242-185 (.567), 5-3 with Columbus (.625, highest winning percentage in franchise history).
