THE STORY BEHIND THE STRIPERS

In a historic event held at Coolray Field on December 8, 2017, the Gwinnett Baseball Club unveiled its new name, logos and uniforms to the public. Following nine seasons as the Gwinnett Braves, the Triple-A International League team announced it would now be known as the Gwinnett Stripers.

The Stripers are the very first unique team identity for an Atlanta Braves-owned Minor League Baseball franchise.

"We are excited to begin a new era as the Stripers," said Vice President and General Manager North Johnson. "Gwinnett County is known for offering a wide variety of outdoor activities, including year-round striped bass fishing on Lake Lanier. As the Stripers, we will honor that outdoor tradition while sporting a unique identity that fans across the region can embrace."

The Stripers name was chosen following a six-month creative process that included input from the Atlanta Braves, sports marketing firm Brandiose, and submissions from the fans. A total of 4,024 submissions and over 900 different names were sent in by fans during a "Name the Team" contest in May, and a selection committee narrowed the entries down to six finalists in July: Big Mouths, Buttons, Gobblers, Hush Puppies, Lambchops and Sweet Teas.

With help from a public online vote, the selection committee initially decided on Big Mouths. In the process of developing the logos and uniforms, however, it was determined that the Big Mouths moniker was not fitting with the ultimate vision of the team. Further discussion and development resulted in a change to the Stripers, a name that was included in the fan submissions but was not one of the six finalists.

"Big Mouths was the inspiration that ultimately led to the Stripers," said Johnson. "We felt focusing on the striped bass would better reflect our community, with Lake Lanier known as a premier destination for striped bass fishing and located just a short drive away from Coolray Field. The Stripers name perfectly fits the region while also having a timeless baseball feel."

With Big Mouths and Stripers both considered winners of the "Name the Team" contest, and each name submitted by multiple fans, the team randomly selected one fan from each group to receive two 2018 season tickets. Patrick Kelly of Decatur, GA (Big Mouths) and Jay Andrews of Sugar Hill, GA (Stripers) were each selected.

The Stripers logos are both fresh and traditional, featuring the team's new main color of "Striper Green" paired alongside the familiar Braves Navy and Red. The Stripers are the first professional sports team to use this color combination.

COOLRAY FIELD

Originally known as Gwinnett Stadium, Coolray Field has been the home of the Gwinnett Braves/Stripers since the start of the 2009 season. The state-of-the-art facility was completed in a mere nine months following its groundbreaking ceremony in June 2008. The Gwinnett Braves welcomed a sellout crowd of 10,427 for the first game in the stadium's history, April 17, 2009 vs. the Norfolk Tides.

Renamed "Coolray Field" thanks to a partnership with Coolray Heating & Cooling in 2010, the ballpark is known for combining the amenities of a Major League stadium alongside the family-friendly conveniences and up-close action of a Minor League stadium. The Home Plate Club and 18 Luxury Suites offer a first-class experience each and every night, while chairback seating complete with cupholders throughout the stadium ensures that every seat is truly the best in the house. Coolray Field can entertain large groups in several areas, including "The Cove" (1st Base Picnic Area), the "1st Base Dock" and "3rd Base Dock" (Party Decks), the "Left Field Landing" and the "Team of the Night/Birthday Zone." A 30-foot-by-40-foot video board in right-center field and a 6-foot-by-42-foot LED board along the left-field wall keep fans informed and entertained throughout the game.

Starting in 2018, Coolray Field also hosts home games for Atlanta United 2, the United Soccer League affiliate of Major League Soccer's Atlanta United FC.

COOLRAY FIELD GROUND RULES

1. Any ball that hits above the yellow line at the top of the outfield fence will be considered a home run.
2. The tarp resting on the first base warning track is in play unless a ball becomes lodged between the tarp and the stadium wall. At that point, the ball will be considered dead.
3. Any ball batted or thrown into either dugout will be considered dead.
4. All other official baseball rules apply.

THE MAGNOLIA TREE

Coolray Field features a unique homage to the history of Minor League Baseball in Atlanta. A Magnolia Tree (pictured left), planted prior to the park's opening in 2009, stands next to the center field concession stand behind the batter's eye.

The tree continues a tradition started by the Atlanta Crackers — Atlanta's first professional baseball team — in 1924. The team's home, Spiller Field (later renamed Ponce de Leon Park) was constructed around a Magnolia Tree that remained in the outfield. The tree stood in playable ground (balls landing in the tree remained in play) until the outfield wall was moved in roughly 50 feet in 1947.

THE VIEWS AT COOLRAY FIELD

The 2015 season saw the completion of The Views at Coolray Field, a luxury apartment complex located just beyond the right field fence.

One and two-bedroom apartments with balconies overlooking the ballpark add a "live, work, play" dynamic to the home of the Gwinnett Strippers. For more information, visit theviewsatcoolray.com.

RECORD ATTENDANCE SET AT 2012 FUTURE STARS GAME

For the first time ever, Coolray Field hosted the Atlanta Braves Major League club in an exhibition game on April 3, 2012. The "Braves All-Stars vs. Future Stars Game" showcased manager Fredi Gonzalez's big league club against a group of organizational stars headed by Hall of Fame manager Bobby Cox (pictured left). A rain-shortened eight-inning game saw the Braves clip the prospects 4-3 in front of a Coolray Field record crowd of 10,568. Among the highlights of the game were a towering solo home run by Dan Uggla and a game-winning pinch-hit RBI double by Duluth, GA's own Brian McCann (pictured right).

THE 2018 GWINNETT STRIPERS

Right-handed pitcher and Lawrenceville, GA native Lucas Sims models the new Stripers' home uniform for 2018. Sims was named Gwinnett's Pitcher of the Year for 2017 by the Atlanta Braves.

NOTEWORTHY IN 2017

2017 IN REVIEW: Playing in their final season under the "Braves" moniker, the Gwinnett Braves went 71-71 (.500) to finish tied for sixth in the 14-team International League. Gwinnett finished second in the IL South Division, 15.0 games behind first-place Durham (86-56), 5.0 games ahead of third-place Norfolk (66-76) and 10.0 games ahead of fourth-place Charlotte (61-81). Though the G-Braves won six more games than in 2016 (65-78), the club failed to repeat as IL South Division Champions (Durham clinched on 8/24).

ROSTER MAKEUP: The Gwinnett roster featured 71 different players in 2017, six less than in 2016 (club record 77). That total included 33 position players, 38 pitchers, and 24 players making their affiliated Triple-A debuts. The G-Braves' roster underwent 230 transactions from 4/4-9/5, 49 less than the club record of 279 set in 2016.

ABOUT THE STAFF: The G-Braves were led by former Atlanta Braves catcher Damon Berryhill (1st season), the sixth manager in the club's nine-year history. In guiding Gwinnett to a 71-71 record, he moved his career managerial mark to 489-458 (.516) in 947 games across nine MiLB seasons. Berryhill's staff included pitching coach Reid Cornelius (1st season), hitting coach John Moses (3rd season), coach Jose Mota (3rd season), coach Billy Nicholson (8th season), certified athletic trainer Nick Flynn (1st season) and strength & conditioning coach Jason Curry (4th season).

ALL EYES ON ACUÑA: 19-year-old Ronald Acuña enjoyed a breakout season, combining to bat .325 (181-for-557, 31 2B, 8 3B, 21 HR, 88 R, 82 RBI, 44 SB) in 139 games between Advanced-A Florida, Double-A Mississippi and Triple-A Gwinnett. He led Minor League Baseball in hits, at-bats and games, ranked among MiLB leaders in total bases (3rd, 291) and steals (9th), and led the Braves' farm system in batting, RBI, steals and homers. After joining Gwinnett for his Triple-A debut on 7/13, Acuña ranked third in the IL in batting (.344, 76-for-221, 14 2B, 2 3B, 9 HR, 38 R, 33 RBI, 11 SB in 54G)... he led the league in games, at-bats, runs, hits, XBH (25), total bases (121) and SLG (.548) in that span.

2017 TEAM AWARDS: Berryhill and G-Braves' GM North Johnson presented the Team Awards for 2017 prior to the game on 9/3. Winners included 2B Ozzie Albies and INF Sean Kazmar Jr. (Co-Most Valuable Players), LHP Andrew Albers (Most Outstanding Pitcher), RHP Rhiner Cruz (Most Outstanding Relief Pitcher), 3B Rio Ruiz (Most Competitive Player), OF Xavier Avery (Fan Favorite Award) and 1B Matt Tuasosopo (Community Service Award).

OZZ-FEAST: Ozzie Albies was selected as the second baseman on the International League's 2017 Post-Season All-Star Team. The 20-year-old Albies batted .285 (117-for-411, 21 2B, 8 3B, 9 HR, 67 R, 41 RBI, 21 SB) over 97 games in his second season with Gwinnett, ranking among IL leaders in triples (T-1st), batting (7th) and stolen bases (T-7th) despite being called up by Atlanta on 8/1. He was also named an IL Mid-Season All-Star, and was the league's starting second baseman and leadoff hitter for the 2017 Triple-A All-Star Game on 7/12 in Tacoma, WA (2-for-5, 2B, R).

AMAZING ALBERS: Andrew Albers went 12-3 with a 2.61 ERA (35 ER in 120.2 IP) and 10 quality starts in 26 games (17 starts) for Gwinnett, racking up the most single-season wins by a G-Braves' pitcher since Julio Teheran went 15-3 in 2011. The 31-year-old left-hander was traded to the Seattle Mariners in exchange for cash considerations on 8/12. Over his final eight starts with GWN from 7/1-8/10, Albers went 6-0 with a 0.98 ERA (2nd in IL, 6 ER in 55.1 IP) a .222 BAA (45-for-203, 1 HR, 9 BB, 49 SO) and seven quality starts. At the time of the trade, he ranked among IL pitching leaders in wins (T-1st), ERA (3rd), WHIP (6th, 1.15), strikeouts (7th, 115) and innings (8th), as well as lowest BB/9.0 IP ratio for starters (1st, 1.38) and fewest baserunners/9.0 IP ratio for starters (2nd, 9.95).

LOCAL ACE: Lucas Sims, a Lawrenceville, GA native, went 7-4 with a 3.75 ERA (48 ER in 115.1 IP), a .224 BAA and a team-high 10 quality starts in 20 games (19 starts) with Gwinnett...he ranked among IL leaders in lowest BAA (4th), strikeouts (5th, 132) and WHIP (5th, 1.14). His stellar season included the IL Pitcher of the Week award for 4/17-4/23 (1-0, 0.00 ERA in 1 start), Gwinnett's Pitcher of the Month award for April (2-0, 2.66 ERA in 4 starts) and selection alongside Albies to the IL's Mid-Season All-Star Team (1.0 IP, 2 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 0 BB, 0 SO in Triple-A All-Star Game on 7/12).

KAZ IS CO-MVP: Sean Kazmar Jr. completed his fifth season with the G-Braves in 2017, earning Co-MVP honors after hitting .284 (103-for-363, 15 2B, 11 HR, 41 R, 45 RBI, 5 SB) in 99 games. Since joining the team in 2013, he's batting .271 (431-for-1591, 91 2B, 9 3B, 24 HR, 189 R, 183 RBI, 19 SB) in a Gwinnett-record 460 games...he also ranks among GWN career leaders in doubles (1st), at-bats (1st), hits (2nd), runs (2nd), RBI (2nd) and triples (T-4th).

X-FACTOR: Xavier Avery batted .259 (96-for-371, 21 2B, 5 3B, 14 HR, 65 R, 82 RBI, 21 SB) over 121 games in his Gwinnett debut, finishing the season among IL offensive leaders in OPS (5th, .816), triples (T-6th), on-base percentage (7th, .361), steals (T-7th), slugging percentage (9th, .456) and walks (10th, .59).

HIS NAME IS RIO: In his second season with Gwinnett, Rio Ruiz batted .247 (96-for-388, 25 2B, 2 3B, 16 HR, 56 RBI, SB) in 103 games. He led the club in doubles, home runs (new career high, 5th-most in Braves' system) and RBI, and ranked second in both total bases (173) and slugging percentage (.446).

POWER RESTORED: The G-Braves topped the 100-homer mark for just the third time in nine years in 2017, ranking seventh in the 14-team International League with 117 clouts...that's second-most all-time by a Gwinnett team, trailing only the 2011 club (123 HR) and ranking ahead of the 2010 club (111 HR).

STRIKEOUT ARTISTS: Gwinnett pitchers combined to strike out 1,184 batters in 2017, third-most in the IL behind only Durham (1st, MiLB-record 1,421 SO) and Scranton/WB (2nd, 1,249 SO). That strikeout total ranks second in G-Braves' history, trailing only the 2011 club (IL-best 1,223 SO). Lucas Sims (132 SO), Andrew Albers (115 SO) and Aaron Blair (104 SO) all topped the 100-strikeout mark, the second time three Gwinnett pitchers have done so in a single season.

ATLANTA CRACKERS

Following a sporadic existence from 1884-1902, the Atlanta Crackers played in the Double-A Southern Association from 1903-1961, winning a league record 18 championships in that span. The Crackers joined the International League in 1962 and won the Governors' Cup in their inaugural Triple-A season. After playing in Ponce de Leon Park from 1906-1923, Spiller Field (later renamed Ponce de Leon Park) from 1924-1964 and Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium in 1965, the Crackers moved to Richmond, VA in 1966 to make way for the Milwaukee Braves to relocate to Atlanta.

RETIRED NUMBERS

23 - TOMMIE AARON

The only man in International League history to earn league MVP honors and manage a Governors' Cup champion, Tommie Aaron played for Richmond for four seasons (1966-67, 1971-72) and managed the club for two seasons (1977-78). He hit .309 as the IL MVP in 1967, helping the Braves capture the IL pennant. Ten seasons later, he became the league's first African-American manager, and in just his second season at the helm, led Richmond to the Governors' Cup Championship in 1978. Aaron's number 23 was originally retired at "The Diamond" in Richmond in 1985, shortly after his passing in 1984.

42 - JACKIE ROBINSON

Retired by all of professional baseball in 1997, the number 42 worn by trailblazer and Baseball Hall-of-Famer Jackie Robinson was added to the Coolray Field outfield wall on April 15, 2012 to honor "Jackie Robinson Day."

In addition, he serves as an ACC color analyst for college baseball games on FSS and FSSE.

Green was drafted in the 32nd round in 1998 by the Atlanta Braves. He made his Major League debut with the Braves in 2004, batting .273 in 95 games. Over an eight-year big league career from 2004-13, he played in 417 games for eight different teams including the Braves, Tampa Bay Rays, New York Yankees, Seattle Mariners, Boston Red Sox, Los Angeles Dodgers, Toronto Blue Jays and Miami Marlins.

DAVE LEZOTTE - MEDIA RELATIONS MANAGER / FILL-IN BROADCASTER

Dave Lezotte is entering his seventh season as the Gwinnett Stripers' Media Relations Manager. He is also the fill-in broadcaster for the Stripers, handling the play-by-play for select home and road dates for the sixth consecutive season.

Prior to joining Gwinnett in November 2011, Dave spent six seasons as the Director of Broadcast-ing and Media Relations for the Clinton LumberKings (Class-A, Texas Rangers/Seattle Mariners).

Dave got his start in baseball in 2000 as a member of the Milwaukee Brewers Grounds Crew and went on to work parts of seven seasons at Milwaukee County Stadium and Miller Park. 2018 MEDIA REGULATIONS

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Season and single-game credentials must be requested through the Gwinnett Stripers Media Relations Department at least 24 hours prior to the date your outlet is planning to attend. Only legitimate news-gathering outlets, at the discretion of the Gwinnett Stripers, will receive credentials. All credentials are non-transferable and should be visible at all times. Credentials will not be issued to anyone under 18 years of age. The Gwinnett Stripers reserve the right to revoke credentials at any time. Anyone seeking autographs, player memorabilia, personal photos, etc. will have their credentials revoked immediately.

ACCESS TO COOLRAY FIELD: All media members are required to enter Coolray Field through the Main Gate, located behind home plate next to the Ticket Office. Entry via the Player Parking and Player Entrance area will not be permitted. You must present a 2018 Gwinnett Stripers Credential to gain access to the ballpark. Single-game credentials can be obtained with valid photo ID at the Coolray Field Will-Call Window. Free parking for media is available in Lot A (based on availability) or the Gravel Lot area adjacent to the third-base side of the ballpark.

PREGAME INTERVIEWS: Gwinnett Stripers' players and coaches will be made available (upon request) for pregame interviews either on the field or in front of the Media Backdrop (located outside the Home Clubhouse) following the conclusion of batting practice. Interviews may not interfere with pregame routines (stretching, hitting, throwing, running, fielding, etc.) and must conclude one (1) hour prior to game time. Starting pitchers will not be made available for pregame interviews on days they are scheduled to start.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Following a 10-minute "cool down" period, a member of the Gwinnett Stripers' Media Relations staff will escort media members into the Home Clubhouse area for a brief post-game interview session. Players and coaches will be obtained upon request. Video interviews will be shot in front of the Media Backdrop (located outside the Home Clubhouse). The training room, weight room and player lounge areas of the clubhouse are off limits to media members at all times. There is no still photography permitted in the clubhouse unless authorized by a member of the Media Relations staff. The Home Clubhouse is CLOSED during rain delays and in between games of a doubleheader.

ATLANTA BRAVES REHAB ASSIGNMENTS: Players on minor league injury rehab assignments for the Atlanta Braves will be made available to the media when possible with their schedule. All interview requests with rehabbing players must be authorized by a member of the Gwinnett Stripers' Media Relations staff. In accordance with Atlanta Braves' Major League Clubhouse Policy, no starting pitchers will be made available for pregame interviews on days that they are starting. Starting pitchers on rehab assignments will be made available for interviews following the conclusion of their outing (subject to availability).

VISITOR'S CLUBHOUSE INTERVIEW REQUESTS: The Visitor's Clubhouse is to be considered CLOSED at all times (prior to and after the game) unless a specific request has been authorized by a member of the Gwinnett Stripers' Media Relations staff. No media members shall access the Visitor's Clubhouse without permission from the Gwinnett Stripers' Media Relations staff, who will work in conjunction with that team's Media/Public Relations department to handle the request. There is no still photography permitted in the Visitor's Clubhouse, unless authorized by a member of the Media Relations staff.

FIELD/DUGOUTS: Media members holding credentials that grant field access may be present in the foul territory/dugout areas up to one (1) hour prior to the scheduled game time. At no time are media members allowed to cross the foul lines into the field of play. Foul territory and dugout areas must be clear of ALL media exactly one (1) hour prior to the start of the game unless special arrangements have been made.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS: Photographers and videographers may utilize the on-field camera pit next to the Home Dugout on the third base side of Coolray Field. Space is limited, and all photographers/videographers must accommodate the space needs of Gwinnett Stripers' staff in this area. No photography is permitted on the field of play while the game is in progress. Special photo requests must be authorized by a member of the Gwinnett Stripers' Media Relations staff.

PRESS BOX: Limited space in the Coolray Field Press Box is available for WORKING MEDIA ONLY. A wireless internet connection will be provided to you. A light pre-game meal is also offered approximately 90 minutes prior to game time in the Executive Offices Cafeteria area. There will be no cheering or rooting for either team at any point during the game. Individuals who violate Press Box rules will be removed and credentials revoked upon the discretion of the Gwinnett Stripers Media Relations Department.

MEDIA INFORMATION: Game notes, rosters, statistics, press releases and other information will be made available daily in the Coolray Field Press Box approximately two (2) hours prior to game time.
