

RiverDogs Hall of Honor

Each year, the RiverDogs and Boeing will recognize and induct new members into the Hall of Honor, which recognizes military veterans with Lowcountry ties. The new inductees will be recognized each season at the three RiverDogs Military Appreciation Nights, presented by Boeing. Hall of Honor members will be recognized on-field and remain on the RiverDogs' online Hall of Honor, located on RiverDogs.com. The Hall of Honor represents another arm of the RiverDogs and Boeing's joint Military Appreciation platform, which aims to bring increased recognition and support to the Lowcountry's military families.

Selection Process

The RiverDogs and Boeing will induct two (2) or more new members to the Hall of Honor at each of the three (3) Military Appreciation Nights for each season. The two inductees will come from two distinct processes:

1. One inductee will come through the RiverDogs' committee, formed by members of the military community, Boeing, and the RiverDogs.
  - RiverDogs will create a list of high-profile military figures with Lowcountry ties
  - Committee will choose one inductee
  - Potential Committee Members
    - Boeing
    - RiverDogs
    - PMSG
    - Media covering Lowcountry military
    - Joint Base PA Office
2. The second (and additional, if applicable) inductee will come through a public-facing nomination process. Through the RiverDogs and Boeing's existing Military Family of the Game program and additional nominations (through web site and social media), the RiverDogs will select one outstanding local military veteran as an inductee.
